Brief Break In Five Day's Fog Releases Ship

LONDON (CP)—The heaviest fog in a generation blanketed Western Europe for the fifth consecutive day today.

Traffic hazards and accidents in a dozen mist-swathed countries increased hourly. Planes were grounded and bus, train and streetcar schedules disrupted.

Russian Woman Held In Canada, Letter Claims

MOSCOW (Reuter)—Red Star today publishes letters from two Russian women who claim they were prevented by British authorities from returning home. One of the women said she was deported to Canada and the other to Britain.

A letter written by Minna Anko says she was "deported" to an unspecified town in Canada where she has been unemployed for a long time. The letter says she needs five years to repay debts she has contracted and until then she cannot save money for her passage home.

The letter asks for help to get back to Russia where, she said, she knew she would not be unemployed.

A letter signed Lydia Kruk, says: "We ask you to deliver us from captivity, in which my mother and I find ourselves in Britain."

"My mother and I work in a factory. We are regarded by the British employers as slaves. . . . We have decided to ask you to deliver us from this bondage and to help us to get out of here."

Czechs Seek Pact With Yugoslavia

BELGRADE (AP)—A Czechoslovak delegation was reported today to have arrived in Belgrade to discuss a new trade pact with Premier Tito. The negotiations are apparently being carried out despite criticism of Tito by the Communist International information bureau and reports of discriminatory trade practices against the Yugoslavs.

King Does Business While Convalescing

LONDON (Reuter)—The King, suffering from an affliction of the legs, dealt with state business today while resting in his apartments at Buckingham Palace. It was the third day after his doctors announced that some improvement in his condition had taken place and that there was less cause for immediate anxiety regarding his right foot.

Russians Warned Western Allies Won't Yield Berlin

PARIS (AP)—The three big western powers have warned they may act to counter Russian attacks on their position in Berlin.

The warning was expressed in a joint note handed to Juan A. Bramuglia, outgoing president of the United Nations Security Council, soon after the Communists split Berlin Tuesday by naming their own rump government.

The note was made public today.

Britain, France and United States declared they could not stand idly by while the Russians intensified their blockade and attempts to force the Western Allies out of the city.

Bramuglia, Argentine foreign minister, has sparked neutral efforts in the Security Council to settle the Berlin deadlock.

The western powers accepted Bramuglia's latest procedure for studying a possible solution of the Berlin crisis. But they said they did so with the condition that recent events in Berlin must be considered in attempting settlement.

"The three western powers cannot agree that they should be bound to submit to all Soviet measures which add to and intensify the Soviet blockade or which interfere with the city administration, while the Soviet remains uncommitted to any restraint," the note declared.

The note gave no hint to what counteraction the western powers might take.

An official French spokesman said today Russian delegate Andrei Vishinsky had accepted the final text of Bramuglia's compromise.

The original draft instructed the negotiators to base their efforts on the four-power directive adopted in Moscow Aug. 30, which formed the basis for fruitless talks by the four-military commanders in Berlin.

The French spokesman said the western powers insisted at a meeting with Bramuglia yesterday that events after Aug. 30 must be considered.

The spokesman said Bramuglia revised the text and showed it to Vishinsky, who raised no objection.

Dallas Road Seafront Caves In

Portion of the 200-foot cave-in on the Dallas Road waterfront which occurred last night is shown barricaded for the protection of traffic and pedestrians. Washing away of sections of the Dallas beach is believed to be responsible for the cave-in. Repairs will be carried out as promptly as possible, it was announced today by city officials.

Plans Discussed For Settlement Of 700 D.P.'s In B.C.

FORT ST. JOHN (CP)—Seven hundred displaced persons from central Europe may settle in the Peace River block of British Columbia soon, it was reported today.

Plans for the settlement, fostered by Canadian branch, North America Syndicate of European Immigration, would involve transferring titles by the B.C. government of several townships and the granting of Crown lands now vacant. Proposed area lies between here and Hines Creek, Alta.

T. W. Hargreaves, one of the first settlers in the Peace River Block, will go to Edmonton to confer with a Canadian National Railways land settlement official before flying to Victoria for talks with B.C. government heads.

The displaced persons, said Mr. Hargreaves, would include men and women trained in industry. A large percentage would be expert dairy farmers.

He said federal Agriculture Minister Gardiner and Mines Minister McKinnon have agreed to assist the plan.

Little Money Taken By Cafe Chef Killer

MONTREAL (CP)—Police investigating the death of Thomas Kacvinsky, 66-year-old cafe chef who was found slumped over a restaurant table Monday with 68 wounds on his head and face, said today the killer got away with little money. The cash register in the restaurant was tampered with but the slayer was unable to open it.

Fire At Hospital

WINNIPEG (CP)—Flames from a canvas-topped lean-to adjacent to a maternity ward under construction on the grounds of the Winnipeg General Hospital today threatened the new section but soon were brought under control.

Little Sign Of Change In Eaton's City Store

Today, for the first time in their lives, Victorians were in the downtown area shopping at an Eaton's store.

But, to the shoppers there was little difference. Where one day there will be the sign "The T. Eaton Co., B.C. Ltd." there still hangs the name "David Spencer Ltd."

Throughout the store, the counters carried the same merchandise. The "Spencer" brand was still to be seen on some of the items in the groceries. Some of the placards above the goods still bear the previous owner's name. The familiar delivery trucks are on the streets and the same faces are to be seen behind the counters.

It is doubtful if Victorians will see any overnight changes. Chris Spencer, in announcing the sale of David Spencer Ltd. to the Eaton company has told his staff there will be few changes for some time.

But there are other things which do tell of the change. J. V. Barnes, former secretary-treasurer of Spencer's here is now manager of the Victoria Eaton's store and is at present in Vancouver.

And in Victoria today is A. R. Tucker, one of Eaton's policy experts who will not replace any former Spencer officials here but who will, according to John D. Eaton, president of the company, "see that business is made to run along the lines of our general policy."

Mr. Eaton, himself, who is now in Vancouver with another group of Eaton officials, including J. R. Jenkins, general manager of the Eaton firm in B.C., is expected over here shortly to inspect his company's Vancouver Island purchases.

In today's paper, instead of the familiar sight of a Spencer ad, there appears the new name of "Eaton's."

Freight Cars Fall In Harbor As Wind Moves Train Ferry

VANCOUVER (CP)—Heavy rains have flooded basements in homes in some districts of the lower mainland and a 20-mile wind was responsible for the toppling of two lumber-laden Canadian Pacific Railway freight cars into Burrard Inlet here as a train ferry was severed from its moorings.

The wind battered log-booming grounds in Howe Sound, scattering logs but loss is expected to be light.

The high wind sheared a train ferry from its mooring at the C.P.R. slip near the immigration dock. Two freight cars loaded with plywood and timber tumbled into the inlet.

Friendship Club Proposed In Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—The recent invasion of Toronto by enthusiastic Californians has started something.

Toronto's Board of Control today endorsed "heartily" a proposal of Torontonians James Paul that a Friendship Club be formed to embrace all citizens across the country and spread the cause of "National Unity" by friendship.

Mr. Paul asked the board's endorsement of a committee to form a Friendship Club in Toronto to which all Canadians all across the Dominion could belong, "to bring such camaraderie as occurred when Calgary rugby fans came to Toronto."

Dominion Not Decided On Affirmative Vote When Question Comes

More Jews Coming

MONTREAL (CP)—Saul Hayes, national director of the Canadian Jewish Congress, said today completion of the program for admitting 1,000 Jewish war orphans to Canada has permitted the government to extend the project to allow 210 more.

Plan Second Appeal

MONTREAL (CP)—Defence counsel for Dr. Raymond Boyer today prepared an appeal to the Supreme Court on the basis of a month-old law. The Quebec Court of Appeals Tuesday denied his appeal to that body and confirmed the conviction on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Official Secrets Act.

No Settlement Near

REGINA (CP)—A Saskatchewan labor department official said today there appeared "no immediate prospect of settling" the strike of 200 coal miners in southern Saskatchewan's Estevan-Blenheim coal field.

New Tourist Record

WINNIPEG (CP)—U.S. tourist trade by the end of the year will have brought more than $12,000,000 into Manitoba for the 12-month period, it was estimated today in a statement issued by Resources Minister J. S. McDiarmid. He said tourist traffic this year broke all records and established a new high in net revenue.

Ear-Biter Jailed

BRANDON, Man. (CP)—Simon Alexander Gillis of Shilo Camp, Man., who bit off a portion of a man's ear in a dance hall fracas here Oct. 16, was sentenced to one month in jail and fined $100 in city police court today. He was charged with assault occasioning actual bodily damage.

Six And Half Inches Above Normal Rain

Victorians are justified in their complaints about the abnormal amount of rain here this year. The monthly weather report issued from the Gonzales Meteorological Station shows that 28.44 inches have dampened the city since the first day of the year. This is six and a half inches above normal with the last month of the year promising to swell the total.

Precipitation for November was also above normal as 5.56 inches were recorded, and the usual amount for the month is 4.1 inches. Despite all the rain, however, the month's supply of sunshine was four hours above the normal 78 hours.

Normal mean temperature for November is 45 degrees here, but observatory officials said it was one degree below average this year. High for the month was 52 degrees, recorded on the fifth, while the minimum temperature was 35 degrees, on the 26 and 27.

Esquire Pin-ups Bring Quebec Fine

THREE RIVERS, Que. (CP)—Pin-up calendars with lightly-clad girls on each page today fell under Three Rivers ban on indecent publications after one merchant was fined $30 for selling them. Police said the agent for the calendars (Esquire) and several other vendors will also face charges of distributing indecent publications.

PARIS (CP)—Syria's chief delegate said tonight the six Arab states will "reconsider their membership in the United Nations" if Israel is admitted.

The Security Council is scheduled to meet tomorrow to consider the Israeli application, but chances of reaching a vote then appeared dim.

The No. 1 Political Committee refused priority to a last-minute Syrian move to ask the International Court of Justice to pronounce on the General Assembly's right to partition Palestine.

Voting on the Syrian proposal was 20 to 20 with eight abstentions.

The committee completed its detailed debate on six proposals on the future of Palestine and went on to vote on each of them. An Australian proposal that a drafting committee be formed to merge the various resolutions was defeated.

The French cabinet discussed how France will vote but reached no decision. France appeared to hold the deciding vote on the 11-member Security Council where seven votes are needed. Six favoring votes seem assured along with one opposing and three abstaining.

Foreign minister Robert Schuman told the cabinet the council should defer voting on Israel until the United Nations' Assembly political committee decides Palestine questions.

Canada Questions Debate

L. B. Pearson, Canada's external affairs minister, reminded the committee that the question of Israel's admission was slated to go before the Security Council Thursday. In view of this, he said, he wondered whether it was desirable to have a lengthy debate on the same subject in the political committee.

An affirmative vote by Canada on Israel's application has been taken for granted in some quarters. But a delegation spokesman said today no decision has been taken and "nobody can say now which way we will vote."

Russia accused Britain of trying to build Trans-Jordan into a powerful Middle East puppet at the expense of Israel. Trans-Jordan lies just east of Palestine and is allied to Britain.

Dean Rusk of the United States endorsed the twice-revised British draft resolution to create a Palestine conciliation commission which calls for "certain modification" in borders of the partitioned country. Rusk said the new British plan is a "substantial step toward settlement" of the long Palestine struggle.

Arab delegates and an Israeli spokesman attacked the plan again.

Aubrey S. Eban told the committee that Jews still reject the British resolution on Palestine—even with the modifications introduced Tuesday to meet United States wishes.

Harold Bealey of Britain and Dr. Oscar Lange of Poland urged that the final resolution should include a reference to economic problems which would be created by the final establishment of the Jewish state.

The Security Council is scheduled to consider Israel's bid for membership at 3 p.m. (9 a.m., E.S.T.) Thursday.

Settlement Near In Shipping Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two of the three striking maritime unions still at odds with the Pacific shipowners were reported "very close" to settlement this afternoon. They were the C.I.O. marine cooks and stewards and the unaffiliated marine firemen. Both met again today.

Restorer Returning

The cableship Restorer is due back in Victoria Dec. 13 following extensive cable-repair and cable-laying operations in the South Pacific.

The report was made by Thomas Moffett, engineer at Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., where the Restorer will be berthed on her return.

Inflation Set Canada Back Billion Dollars In 1948

OTTAWA (CP)—Inflation will cost Canadian consumers around $1,000,000,000 this year.

That sum—roughly $200 per wage-earner—is what the rising cost of living will slice from their purchasing power.

Though personal income will be at an all-time high—well over $1,000,000,000 more than the previous peak in 1947—higher costs of goods and services mean that the mass buying power of the Dominion public has been just about the same this year as last.

As estimated by the economics division to the Department of Agriculture, the gross personal income this year is likely to be about 11 or 12 per cent above the record $10,979,000,000 of last year.

Allowing for direct taxes, the "disposable" income of the consumer—what he has to spend—is figured at around $10,727,000,000. That is about $1,234,000,000 above the 1947 spendable income.

Another government department—the Bureau of Statistics—points out that direct taxes are still taking a far bigger chunk out of income than before the war, though this has been reduced slightly from last year. Despite the rising cost of living, the bureau reports in its monthly review, savings have gone back to their normal pre-war trend—about 6 per cent of income in 1947.

The end of the cost-of-living climb is not yet in sight. Though the living-cost barometer showed a slowing in the rate of ascension this month, the economics division of the agriculture department indicated it may be going up for some time to come.

The division said wholesale prices in the last five months of the year may be up another 2½ to 5 per cent over the 7.5-per cent rise for the first seven months.

Argentina Thought Likely To Enter World Wheat Pact

By GEORGE RONALD
WASHINGTON (CP) — Definite interest is being shown here in President Truman's invitation to Russia and Argentina to join the United Nations' Food and Agricultural organization.
He said last week in a speech at the F.A.O. conference:
"I should like to see that large agricultural country, Argentina, become a member. I wish that the Soviet Union would also join."
The consensus is that there's little likelihood of the Soviet Union entering but some observers say there's good reason to hope wheat-rich Argentina will come in.

Cited as the main stumbling-block to Russian membership is that F.A.O. countries commit themselves to free interchange of agricultural and food statistics. The traditional Russian policy of secrecy about internal conditions seems to rule out the possibility of the Soviet making that kind of commitment.

BID CONSIDERED
On the other hand, there has been no denial of unofficial reports that Argentina is considering a bid for membership. Argentina was not among the 36 countries which negotiated the abortive international wheat agreement of last March. She chose instead to sell in the higher-paying free world market.

That agreement, which was to have pegged prices for five years, fell through. But there's talk of a new one and the possibility of a world wheat conference next Jan. 25.
Bountiful world wheat crops this year have weakened the free market and big harvests in coming years would accentuate that situation.

Labor Code Critics To Meet Wismer

VANCOUVER (CP) — Labor Minister Gordon Wismer's invitation to labor and management to submit criticisms of the British Columbia labor statute is getting results.
In a prepared statement issued Tuesday George Home, an official of the B.C. Federation of Labor, said his organization "welcomes the opportunity to meet Mr. Wismer in discussion."
Monday Mr. Wismer termed the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act "the finest piece of labor legislation anywhere." He said that although some changes might be necessary, the act itself was essential to the protection of small labor groups.
Mr. Home said his organization would meet Dec. 7 to hear suggested amendments to the act.

Ex-I.W.A. Officers Released On Bail

DUNCAN (CP) — Two former local officers of the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.) have been remanded until Dec. 7 on charges of theft and fraudulent conversion of $17,000 in I.W.A. funds and bonds.
Owen G. Brown and Fred Wilson appeared in police court here Monday and were released on $5,000 bail.
The former I.W.A. officials broke away from the parent body when Harold Pritchett and Ernie Daiskog formed the leftist Woodworkers' Industrial Union of Canada Oct. 3.

Baby's Cries Lead To Discovery Of Two Dead In Room

VANCOUVER (CP) — Lonely cries of six-month-old Norma Mary Whitfield Tuesday led to discovery of the bodies of her mother and four-year-old brother, dead in a gas-filled hotel room here.
Mr. and Mrs. Chris Gassler, hotel guests, heard the child cry and went into the corridor where they found Norma Mary alone in her carriage. Minutes later, the hotel caretaker discovered the bodies of Mrs. Leslie Whitfield and four-year-old James Michael. The father is believed to be at sea.

Three gas jets were found open in the room. Both mother and child had been dead for some time. Police were unable to say why the baby girl had been left in the hallway.
Young Norma has been placed in the care of her grandmother, Mrs. Violet Smith of Vancouver.

Fledgling Pilots Await Test Results

Two members of No. 89 Squadron, Royal Canadian Air Cadets, have completed their flight training and are awaiting results of their Department of Transport tests.
WO2. Peter Rogers, 18, 630 Island Road, and Sgt. Godfrey White, 18, 526 Rithet Street, were awarded flight scholarship courses with the Victoria Flying Club at Patricia Bay airport.
Taught by club instructor, Jack Jenkins, the pair will be qualified to fly almost anywhere in the world should they pass all requirements.

Members of the Greater Victoria Air Cadet squadron since 1946, the boys were awarded the scholarships on all-round merit.

Appeal Of Tacoma Axe Killer Denied

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — Jake Bird, convicted slayer of a Tacoma woman, Tuesday lost the final round of his state court fight to escape the noose.
The State Supreme Court denied the transient negro's plea that it rehear his case. It refused to reconsider its earlier decision which affirmed Bird's conviction of the first degree axe murder of Mrs. Bertha Kludt in Tacoma Oct. 30, 1947.

Weather Spectacular Fire Destroys Sidney Hotel

Weather synopsis and official forecast issued at 9 a.m., Wednesday, Dec. 1, by the Dominion weather office at Vancouver, valid until midnight, Thursday, Dec. 2:

Synopsis—Another active storm is moving very rapidly across the B.C. coast this morning, accompanied by rains and high winds. This system will give considerable snow over the interior. However, there are indications that this may be the last of this series of storms and that we may look for considerable improved weather across the province tomorrow.

Vancouver and vicinity, lower Fraser Valley—Rain this period. Intermittent light rain this afternoon and evening. Cloudy with showers tonight and tomorrow morning, clearing by noon. Winds southeasterly 20 this morning, shifting to southeasterly 20 this afternoon and to westerly 25 after midnight tonight. Winds northwesterly 15 tomorrow. Little change in temperature. Low tonight and high tomorrow at Vancouver airport 36-41, Abbotsford 36-44.

Georgia Strait—Rain, becoming intermittent this afternoon and evening. Cloudy with showers after midnight, clearing by morning. Clear tomorrow. Winds southeasterly 30 this morning, becoming southwesterly 25 this afternoon and shifting to northwesterly 30 tonight. Winds northwesterly 20 tomorrow. Little change in temperature. Low tonight and high tomorrow at Nanaimo 35-43.

Eaton Company New Owners Today Of Spencer's 8 Department Stores

This morning, 980 Victoria department store employees went back to work to do business at the same place, but under a new employer, the T. Eaton Co. Ltd.

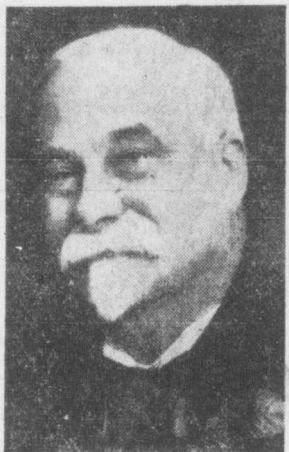

Outwardly there are no visible manifestations of the business deal, said to involve $15,000,000 or more, which saw the province-wide holdings of David Spencer Ltd. with its 3,000 employees pass into the hands of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd.

Announcement of the sale was made Tuesday evening jointly in Victoria by Miss Sara Spencer, and in Vancouver by Chris Spencer, 80-year-old patriarch of the "family" chain. Simultaneously, announcements were made at the Spencer branch stores in Nanaimo, New Westminster, Chilliwack, Mission, Duncan and Courtenay, and at a grocery store and Spencer warehouses in Vancouver.

Here in Victoria, Miss Sara Spencer made a short speech before the assembled staff of the store, just as her brother was doing in Vancouver.

After she had told the staff the news which had been rumored for weeks, she was presented with a basket of flowers by Miss M. Fairfull, skipper of Spencer's 25-Year Club, an organization of local store employees who have served the company for a quarter of a century or more.

Miss Spencer said that although she had always had an interest in the store and its future, it was during the past two years when she took an active part in administration of the store that she learned to know the store personnel here and was able to come interested in them as individuals.

Miss Spencer is confident that a great many of the staff members will be able to develop, and she stressed the broader opportunities that are now presented with the purchase of the store by the larger Canadian company.

In Vancouver, where Mr. Spencer made his announcement, John D. Eaton, president of the Eaton company, also addressed the employees.

VICTORIA MANAGER CONTINUES

Over the long distance telephone from Vancouver today he told the Victoria Times J. V. Barnes, at present secretary-treasurer of Spencer's "home" store, would remain here as manager of the store under Eaton ownership.

Asked what staff changes were contemplated, Mr. Eaton replied he knew of "nothing extraordinary" to be done in this respect.

He also indicated that alterations will be made to the store, although there are no intentions of doing these immediately. A study will be made of possible alterations, he said.

Mr. Eaton plans to be in Victoria shortly.

In his announcement of the sale, Mr. Spencer said: "For many years a warm friendship has existed between these old family concerns, a friendship that extended beyond business relationships to a close and personal regard."

MAINTAINING HONORABLE TRADITIONS

"When it was decided that David Spencer Ltd. should be sold, it seemed a matter of course that, having expressed an intention of opening stores in B.C., the T. Eaton Co. should purchase the Spencer business and thus ensure the maintenance of the honorable traditions and sound retailing principles for which David Spencer Ltd. has been noted for over 75 years."

"My brother, Victor, and members of the Spencer family are very sensible of the debt we owe to our friends and customers all over the province and take this opportunity of thanking them for their assistance in building up such an institution."

The 1,500 former Spencer employees in Vancouver will not go back to work under the new management until Thursday because of all-day Wednesday closing in the mainland city.

Customers will note two immediate changes. In conformity with the late Timothy Eaton's long-famous precepts, no tobacco will be offered for sale, and, on Sundays the window displays will be hidden by drawn blinds.

According to a Vancouver report, plans for demolition of the old Vancouver Hotel, historic hostelry in the centre of Vancouver and purchased by the Eaton company some months ago, will proceed. Erection of a proposed new store will be postponed temporarily, but the project will be carried out eventually, the report said.

SPENCER'S STARTED 75 YEARS AGO

The House of Spencer was born 75 years ago when David Spencer, a devout lay preacher from Wales, bought a drygoods business in Victoria with William Denny.

Five years later, David Spencer bought a store of his own, a 30-foot by 60-foot shop. In three-quarters of a century, Spencer's expanded to more than 1,000,000 square feet of selling space with stores at eight B.C. centres. A two-man staff has grown to more than 3,000 with an annual payroll in the millions.

Mr. Chris Spencer and Col. Victor Spencer, rancher and formerly the firm's vice-president, are the two surviving sons of David Spencer.

According to "Mr. Chris," as he is affectionately known to thousands of the staff, the sale was made because "the heavy taxes and succession duties found necessary by two World Wars have made it impossible for most family companies such as ours to continue."

Inclusion of the Spencer stores into the Eaton chain will mean that the Eaton company will now operate 60 department stores across the Dominion, as well as a large mail order business with hundreds of order offices in smaller communities.

The Eaton branches in B.C. will be administered by a new company known as The T. Eaton Co., B.C. Ltd. Its president will be John David Eaton, and vice-presidents are O. D. Vaughan, Toronto, and J. R. Jenkins, Vancouver.

Directors are R. S. McCordick and G. M. Eaton, Winnipeg; J. Elliott, Toronto, who is secretary, and W. Park, Toronto.

Palestine Lecture

"Palestine Through the Eyes of a Non-Jew" will be the subject of an address to be given by Rev. W. L. Hull at an open meeting Saturday at 8 in the Temple Emanu-El, corner Blanshard and Pandora Avenue.

Mr. Hull, who lived in Palestine for 12 years, witnessed the stirring events leading up to the partition resolution and was in Jerusalem during the period of violence that followed.

A sum of $841.75 was awarded to Louis Holker in a judgment handed down by Judge H. H. Shandley in County Court today. Mr. Holker, plaintiff in a civil action, sued William Brander to recover the sum which he alleged was the balance due to him by the defendant in connection with the sale of four motor vehicles.

Washington Greeted Madame Chiang Kai-shek On Aid-Seeking Visit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Madame Chiang Kai-shek, First Lady of China, arrived here today on a special mission to win new support for the hard-pressed Chinese government.

Although her schedule for her two-week visit has not been announced, she had an invitation to spend the first few days at the home of State Secretary and Mrs. Marshall at nearby Leesburg, Va.

Marshall now is in hospital for a physical check-up. State Department officials predict he will be away from his office at least several days.

While American officials undoubtedly will show Mme. Chiang every courtesy due the wife of a country's leader, behind their smiling welcome they are not too happy about the visit.

They expect Mme. Chiang not only to appeal to government officials for aid, but also to try to stir up greater popular interest in the Chinese cause.

Her mission comes at a time when Truman and Marshall apparently have concluded that any aid which would involve the United States deeply in the Chinese war is out of the question.

Some new program of carefully limited help still seems probable. But whether it will be designed to furnish strong support to the Chiang regime still is uncertain. American authorities appear to have little confidence in his ability to make a comeback, no matter what help he gets.

Norman Moss was elected president of the Y.M.C.A. Current Events Club at the last meeting. Next meeting is set for Saturday night at 6.

Seal Campaign Nets $4,000 For T.B. Fight In 2 Weeks

The T.B. Christmas Seal campaign, under the direction of the Soroptomist Club, has netted a little over $4,000 since it got under way two weeks ago, Mrs. James McMartin, publicity chairman, announced today.

Objective is to surpass last year's total of $12,656. Sheets of Christmas seals have been mailed to 20,000 householders and business firms in Victoria.

Campaign officials stress that contributions can be as little or as much as the individual cares to send in. Two dollars is the usual amount—$1 per sheet.

The proceeds from the annual Christmas seal campaign, now in its 22nd season, are the major source of revenue for the fight against tuberculosis in Canada.

Importance of the contributions, the only ones asked of citizens during the year, is seen from the fact that 15 deaths a day, or nearly 5,000 lives a year, are lost in Canada from tuberculosis.

Settlers Complete 3,600 Mile Trip

These two young English settlers, Mr. and Mrs. Caton, attracted attention when they arrived here with their fully-loaded British-made panel truck. The couple hope to earn their livelihood in Victoria. Sally, their dog, could not be coaxed to face the camera.

A long journey in a modern caravan ended today for a young English couple who have arrived in Victoria to settle down—they hope for keeps.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Caton of Chagford, Devon, who have traveled across Canada and the United States in a panel truck. The vehicle carried a capacity load of household goods, almost everything but a kitchen sink.

There was also another passenger, Sally, a springer spaniel, who is still inclined to be shy of Canadians and somewhat bewildered by her new surroundings.

To start the journey from England the young couple bought a 1936 British-made Ford panel truck for $400 ($1,600), packed the vehicle with their prized possessions on board a cargo vessel and embarked for Canada.

On Oct. 31 they disembarked from the C.P.R. cargo vessel Beaverburn at Montreal. From there they began their journey westward, stopping here and there along the route to cook their meals. They slept in the truck.

The Englishman, attired in heavy tweed plus fours, said British Columbia servicemen serving in England during the war sold him the idea of coming to the province. He served with the Royal Signals Corp in Malaya, France, Belgium and Germany.

"I had hopes of becoming an electrical engineer," he said, "but I was told when I was discharged from the army that I might have to wait 18 months or more for an opening in one of the universities. Rather than wait that long we decided to come over here."

Mrs. Caton, who served with the A.T.S. in the war, was married to her husband shortly after the end of hostilities. The couple had already started a home in England when they decided to try their luck in Canada.

"We started to sell our belongings," said Mrs. Caton. "However, we kept our Chinese rugs, chest and an antique chair for our new home out here."

Mr. Caton said that they would have motored entirely across the Dominion if they had arrived sooner in Canada. They feared snow might block the roads, however, and so decided to travel part of the journey across the United States.

The couple said the people of Britain appreciated Canadian food parcels. When questioned as to what kind of food Britons appreciated most, Mr. Caton said fats and meat were highly prized.

Mr. Caton said he hoped to get in the hotel business. "I've got to start feeding my family now," said the Englishman who was only allowed to take $1,000 with him from England. "I don't expect any difficulties."

Woman Tells Of Life In British Zone Of Postwar Germany

A refreshing change from stories out of Germany which tell of important political developments was enjoyed by members of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday when Mrs. E. E. M. Pierce told of the more human side of life in Europe today.

Mrs. Pierce, who spent two years in the British Zone of Germany with her husband, Maj. E. E. M. Pierce, a member of the military government, said that 28 per cent of the prewar buildings house all the people in the zone.

"There is, in most homes left standing, roughly nine square feet of space per person," she said.

"People who wonder why the rubble of buildings has not been cleaned up apparently do not realize that it took a long time to get services that we take for granted—electricity, water, gas and transportation—functioning properly again. The rubble could not be cleaned up when there was no coal to run the steam shovels," said the speaker.

She added that 80 per cent of the coal mined in the British zone had gone out of the country in reparations.

CURRENCY REFORM

Mrs. Pierce told of the currency reform last June. One of its far-reaching effects, she said, was that it did much to cut operations of the black market.

The day after currency changes came into effect, stores which had no stock previously were full, Mrs. Pierce noted. Reason for this was that the mark was worth only one-tenth of what it had been previously and people could no longer afford to buy from the black market. Consequently, the goods turned up in shops.

Mrs. Pierce was thanked for her talk by E. F. Fox.

Terrace Boy Scout To Share Honors With War Heroes

OTTAWA (CP)—A 10-year-old Boy Scout from Windsor, Ont., and a couple of teenage scouts from Terrace, B.C., and Sherbrooke, Que., will share honors with war heroes at an investiture today at Government House.

Gallant deeds during the last year have won for the boys a place in the first group investiture ever held in the history of Canadian scouting.

The Chief Scout for Canada—Viscount Alexander—will present the awards in the course of a ceremony which will see more than 100 high-ranking officers from the three armed services receive decorations ranging from the medal of the Commander of the British Empire to the Distinguished Flying Cross.

The Silver Cross, one of the highest awards the Scout Association gives for bravery, goes to Cub Gordon St. Onge of Windsor, who last winter rescued another boy from drowning in the Detroit River.

A courageous effort to save the life of a younger brother when the family home went up in flames won the Silver Cross for 15-year-old Roy Clifford of Terrace.

Rover Scout Henri Chabot, 17, of Sherbrooke will be decorated with the Gilt Cross for rescuing his uncle from drowning.

At an investiture Tuesday, journalists, scientists and economic experts who made outstanding contributions to Canada's war effort were among those decorated.

A prominent Canadian journalist, Ross Munro, received the O.B.E. "for distinguished service" overseas while a war correspondent with the Canadian Press. Mr. Munro is now parliamentary correspondent for Southam News Service.

The monthly meeting of the Canadian National Railway Veterans' Association will be held in the Knights of Pythias hall Friday afternoon at 2. Following the meeting movies will be shown and refreshments served.

Seek Lowering Of Down Payments On Purchases Of Homes

EDMONTON (CP)—The National House Builders' Association disclosed Tuesday efforts to have the Dominion government arrange for lower down payments from persons wishing to purchase homes.

George Prudham of Edmonton, N.H.B.A. president, released copies of letters sent to Hon. R. V. Winters, federal Reconstruction Minister, and to the premiers of all provinces.

The letter to Mr. Winters submitted:

1. That in order to produce the maximum number of houses in 1949, there should be close co-operation between all builders and all levels of government from municipal to federal;
2. That a 10 per cent down payment would result in maximum production by builders;
3. That the objective in Canada for 1949 should be at least 100,000 housing units;
4. That housing should be considered at the Dominion-provincial conference scheduled for next month;
5. That the federal government should consider the advisability of calling a conference of representatives of all provinces to discuss ways and means of obtaining maximum house production and easier financing of new homes.

The decision against the appeal was unanimous, delivered in a 50-page judgment, said to be one of the longest in the Appeal Court's history.

Montreal Doctor Loses Appeal In Spy Ring Case

MONTREAL (CP)—Dr. Raymond Boyer, wealthy Montreal chemist, today lost his appeal against conviction one year ago for violation of the Official Secrets Act in the 1946 espionage case.

The decision against the appeal was unanimous, delivered in a 50-page judgment, said to be one of the longest in the Appeal Court's history.

TWO-YEAR SENTENCE

The 41-year-old explosives expert who became the eighth Canadian to be convicted following the spy-rings disclosures of Igor Gouzenko, cipher clerk in the Russian embassy at Ottawa, was sentenced to two years in penitentiary.

Specifically, he was alleged to have given information in 1943 to Fred Rose, former Labor-Progressive Member of Parliament, about Canada's secret process for manufacture of the super-explosive RDX. Rose now is serving a six-year penitentiary term.

Dr. Boyer, a former McGill University professor, was freed on $25,000 bail when his appeal was launched last January.

D.P.'s Must Agree To Stay With Job

OTTAWA (CP)—Labor Minister Mitchell said in a statement Tuesday that European displaced persons brought to Canada had to sign agreements to remain in selected jobs for specified periods.

The minister rumors had been spread recently that D.P.'s did not sign such agreements or were not under obligation to remain in selected employment for selected periods.

Mr. Mitchell made public a copy of the agreement signed by all D.P.'s, in which they agree to remain for a year in employment selected by the Labor Department.

Cocoa Mill Blast Death Toll Eight

HULL, Yorkshire, England (Reuter)—The death toll in Monday's British Cocoa Mills plant explosion rose to eight Tuesday with the discovery of two bodies in the wreckage.

Two persons still are missing following the blast and fire believed caused by an exploding gasoline tank.

Fourteen persons are in hospital, four of them on the danger list and the others "very ill" hospital officials said.

A 20-year-old girl cashier, trapped in the offices for four hours while flames enveloped the building, was reported to be "critically ill" today.

Tory Chief Ails

TORONTO (CP)—George Drew, national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, is laid up at his home here with a cold and sore throat but expects to be back in action within a couple of days. From his room Mr. Drew told the Canadian Press by telephone that his condition is not serious, but his doctor has ordered him to bed.

Battlefield Queen Still The Infantry

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's chief of the General Staff said Tuesday night despite the advent of mass-destruction weapons which will not allow large concentrations of material and troops, the infantry will still be the "queen of the battlefield in a future war."

LT-Gen. Charles Foulkes, in a speech before the annual regimental dinner of the Cameron Highlanders, said: "My experience in war was that in each theatre I always found we had too much armor, usually enough artillery to blow everything to hell, but always short of real fighting troops—the infantry."

He predicted that the use of mass-destruction weapons on land forces in a future war would mean that "dispersion for protection" would be the watchword in army base areas.

Waging the future war would require a higher standard of training and leadership from all junior leaders. No longer would corps and divisional commanders be able to keep a thumb on the battle.

Candidate Named

WOLSELEY, Sask. (CP)—Austin Edwin Dewar, 36-year-old insurance agent from Indian Head, Sask., was named today by a Liberal nominating convention to contest the federal constituency of Qu'Appelle in the next Dominion election. Agriculture Minister Gardiner was the main speaker at the meeting which attracted about 190 delegates.

MAPPING RUGGED FACE OF ALASKA—Some 30,000 square miles of rugged Alaskan terrain were photographed recently by six Lockheed P2V Neptunes. It was the first time in 20 years that any extensive photomapping has been done in the Alaskan area. Three of the planes that did the job are shown here flying in formation over the south end of Mt. Fairweather range. Brady Icefield is in background. Special cameras, built for this job, were used in the photomapping.—S.N.S. Photo.

969 Relief Cases From Fraser Floods

There have been 969 relief cases to date for the government to deal with as a result of the spring floods in the Fraser Valley.

This was reported today by Lands Minister E. T. Kenney who said that of the 969, 892 have been investigated and reports made on 831.

Final settlement has been made of 480 cases. Many of the remainder have been left over until next spring when new crops are planted.

Meanwhile farmers whose properties were damaged by the floods are being assisted in purchasing hay for winter feed, and with orders for seed and nursery stock for next spring.

Strikes Tie Up 430 Jap Vessels

TOKYO (AP)—A wave of strikes tied up 430 Japanese ships and made idle 140,000 coal miners today.

The government is at least indirectly involved in all the strikes.

More strikes were threatened a few hours after the Japanese House of Representatives approved a bill outlawing strikes or collective bargaining by government workers. The House of Councillors is expected to adopt the measure.

Japanese shipping was tied by a two-day strike of the seamen's union, in support of a 30 per cent wage boost demand. Another three-day strike was threatened if no agreement is reached by

to finish the job

Thursday. Negotiations are with the government because most shipments are government cargo. Japan's three major coal miner unions called a wave of three-day regional strikes in protest against the government's refusal to intervene in a wage dispute. Miners representatives refused to negotiate directly with operators.

Speaker Urges Continued Aid For Europe's Children

Poignant word pictures that spoke eloquently of the need for continued assistance for children of Europe, were presented at meetings yesterday afternoon and evening, by Dr. Lottia Hirschmanova, director of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada.

Dr. Hirschmanova, who recently returned from a three-month visit in Europe, spoke to a capacity audience at a Women's Club meeting in the Empress Hotel, in the afternoon, and at night to a meeting sponsored by the Children of France Society in Prince Robert House.

A good crop this year in Europe, Dr. Hirschmanova said, has lightened conditions to an extent, but even with a good crop, there is still a terrible lack of milk, fat and dairy products, for it will take two more years at least to build up the dairy herds again. "Despite this fact, I feel the greatest need is not for food," she said, "but for clothing and especially for shoes."

"If we can keep the children of Europe reasonably warm this winter, and give them shoes, so their feet will not be frozen, then we may be able to save hundreds from death."

Canadian shipments of clothing to Europe have been received with deepest gratitude, Dr. Hirschmanova said, and urged her audiences to continue this work.

"The thousands of war orphans in Europe are an important factor in our bid for peace," she pointed out.

"If we make them understand through continued gifts of clothing and food that they are not forgotten; that we are interested in their well-being and their future, then we are assisting them to become good citizens of the future."

"Now is the time," she concluded, "while there is still an opportunity to work for a united Europe."

Dr. Hirschmanova showed films, both afternoon and evening, to substantiate her stories.

Mrs. H. L. Smith presided at the Women's Canadian Club meeting and prior to Dr. Hirschmanova's address, introduced Miss Margaret Patricia Leach, former student at Mt. View High School, and Lauren W. Savage, former Victoria High School student, this year's winners of the club's bursary awards. Both students are now attending Victoria College, Miss Leach studying to become a teacher and Mr. Savage a doctor.

A silent tribute was paid to Mrs. Alfred Watt, O.B.E., charter member of the club, who died in Montreal on Monday.

P.T.A. News

Muir Creek—At a meeting of Muir Creek and Shirley P.T.A. members decided to hold a card party Friday at 8 in Muir Creek School. Final plans were made for the old time dance to be held in Shirley Hall, Dec. 10 at 9.30, when novelty prizes will be given. Proceeds will be used for the Children's annual Christmas concert.

James Douglas—Many parents and grade eight pupils attended the box social and dance held by Sir James Douglas P.T.A. in the school auditorium. Nick Robertson was master of ceremonies. Boxes artistically decorated by the women were auctioned and home made candy sold. The Indian Nativity play will be held tonight at 8. Next meeting will be Dec. 7 at 8 when a musical program, followed by cards and refreshments will be held.

Willows—Approximately $500 was realized from the Christmas bazaar held in the school auditorium by Willows P.T.A. Mrs. G. W. Pottinger opened the affair, one of the most successful held by the association, according to co-conveners, Mrs. Thomas Kay and Mrs. A. L. Stevenson. Many attractive stalls were filled with original Christmas gifts. A display of photography was presented by Irvine Dawson, which was in charge of Mrs. F. C. Bartholomew and Mrs. J. Gelling. Afternoon tea was served under supervision of Mrs. C. Gibbart and Mrs. H. A. Reid. In charge of stalls were: aprons, Mrs. H. A. Harrison, Mrs. W. Burley; gifts, Mrs. R. Pipes, Mrs. P. H. Martin; home cooking, Mrs. Percy Noel, Mrs. L. Bassett; toys, Mrs. E. Sisson, Mrs. J. Gelling; Christmas tree, Mrs. T. Dickinson, Mrs. S. Gibbart; candy, Mrs. L. F. W. Wells, Mrs. R. Lochhead; hot dogs, Mrs. D. Smith, Mrs. R. Sparks; contest, Mrs. T. Gillam.

P.T.A. Membership 4,400, Council Told

Mrs. G. W. Pottinger presided at a meeting of Victoria and District P.T.A. Council held at North Ward School, when many delegates, including representatives from Sidney, Langford and Royal Oak, were present.

Mrs. S. C. Hawkins reported that membership was now 4,400, and the objective, 5,000. The council decided to assist with the emergency food for Britain tag day to be held Dec. 4, and Mrs. F. Mawdsley was appointed in charge. Mrs. G. M. McGee was elected third vice-president.

A brief talk on suitable reading material for children was given by Mrs. T. W. A. Gray. Mrs. W. Hudson reported plans for the dance to be held Feb. 5, were nearing completion.

Spring Styles Shown

TORONTO (CP)—Streamlined examples of women's spring styles were shown here last night when more than 75 Toronto manufacturers made a bid for Canada's fashion trade.

At the opening of the Toronto fashion industries' two-day showings about 800 buyers from across the Dominion applauded as a cross-section of graceful, ladylike coats, dresses and suits were shown. Arresting details on cuff, pocket, draping and collar caught the eye.

Suits took the lead in the fitted silhouette. The long, well-tailored lines and slim, over-hip jackets were shown in navy, green, grey, black and a new shade of copper rose. The double-breasted effect with the vest underneath was a sporty version of one of the newer modes.

Skirts on the whole observed a pencil-slimness, with kick pleats and small side or back slits allowing for walking comfort.

The cape is definitely assured of a place in the spring fashions. Capelet shoulders on suits are reminiscent of the Victorian age.

Capes were also seen on princess-lined coats or the jaunty yoked affairs. The Empire high-waisted coat with a back half-belt catching a burst of unpressed folds will share spring coat news with the fitted, belted greatcoat. High, "chin-chin" collars and wide cuffs, often double or triple folds, were seen on fur as well as fabric coats.

Quaint Victorian touches on spring dresses will make them even more feminine and graceful than those shown this fall. Heightened collars, stoles, bustle backs, tiers and capelets are all being shown in rustling taffetas, jacquards and moires.

The Empire influence is seen in wide midriff bands, but emphasis, tucks and long princess lines to give the high-waist appearance and wide portrait necklines that frame the face.

The jutting pocket, cuff and collar as well as the winged bustle are French-inspired innovations for spring.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Will Spencer and Mrs. Lael Edwards will leave Victoria next Saturday en route to Montreal. From there Mrs. Spencer will go to New York to spend Christmas with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nikoli Pavelic, and Mrs. Edwards will travel to Boston to be the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Dummaine, for the holiday season.

Miss E. Campbell left at the beginning of the week for her home in Seattle after visiting with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. N. Burnley Hall, Radcliffe Lane, for the last ten days.

Miss Barbara Nation, who is visiting in eastern Canada, was among those present at the St. Andrew's Ball in Montreal, last Friday night, when 30 debutantes were presented to His Excellency Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Governor-General of Canada, and Viscountess Alexander. While in Montreal, Miss Nation has been the guest of Mrs. Norman Williamson.

Mrs. A. Walsh entertained at a surprise miscellaneous shower at her home, 308 Douglas Street, for Miss Evelyn Anne "Babs" Weatherill, whose marriage will take place this month. A corsage bouquet of pink carnations was presented to the honor guest, and her mother, Mrs. J. Bond, and mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. M. P. Biggs, received rosebuds. A mauve and yellow box contained gifts. A shower cake trimmed in pink and white centred the table, from which a buffet supper was served. Other guests were Mesdames G. Walsh Sr., R. Wherry, M. Jeffrey, S. Moore, M. Campbell, J. Paxton, S. Bollanatz, M. Harris, D. Streeton and Misses Kathleen Paxton, Marion Ker, S. Walsh, Joan Paxton and Pat Button.

Miss Mary Violet Bryant, who on Dec. 18 will become Mrs. Carlos Blatchford, was entertained at a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. A. Rowa and Mrs. Joe Bryant, at the home of the former, 2836 Heath Drive. Bright yellow carnations en corsage were presented to the honor guest, while mothers of the affianced pair, Mrs. Thomas Bryant and Mrs. Carlos Blatchford, received pink carnations. Gifts were contained in a pink and blue basket drawn into the room by little Joey and Tommy Rowa. Others invited were Mesdames George Bryant, A. Corry, James Bryant, A. Farey, J. Verhaag, F. Bonner, H. Bonner, C. Wilson, W. Jackson, C. Griffin, Hugh Neuman, Pat O'Neil, K. Campbell, T. Newnam, P. Corry, B. Sims, A. Stratford, F. Brooks, S. Rowa, and Misses Jean Corry, Shirley Corry, Violet Wilson and Gwen Griffin.

Came Rebekah Lodge No. 45, business meeting, I.O.O.F. Hall, Douglas Street, Thursday, at 8. Rebekah degree to be conferred.

Capt. H. S. Rayner, D.S.C. and Bar, A.D.C., R.C.N., with members of the staff and cadets, Canadian Services College, Royal Roads, will be hosts at an at home and dance on the quarter-deck, on Friday, Dec. 17, commencing at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hawes who spent two weeks in Victoria recently with Mrs. Hawes' parents, Maj.-Gen. and Mrs. W. W. Foster, Island Road, are at present motoring through the United States, en route to their home in North Hatley, Que.

Mrs. F. Wilmshurst and Mrs. C. C. Warren entertained ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Choir in the lecture room, to honor a fellow member, Miss Ethel Wilson, whose marriage to Mr. William J. Colvin will take place Dec. 18. Miss Wilson was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Mothers of the couple, Mrs. J. Wilson and Mrs. W. J. Colvin, who presided at the tea urns, also received corsage bouquet. Later in the evening the men joined the party and games were played. A buffet supper was served to the 50 guests from a table centred with pale pink mums and yellow candles.

Married Quietly

The marriage was solemnized quietly Nov. 27, of Mrs. Annie Gee, 660 Beacon Street, formerly of Saskatchewan, and Thomas J. Harkness, also formerly of Saskatchewan. Rev. D. L. Gordon officiated.

Tags Prepared For United Emergency Fund Appeal

Left to right, Mrs. F. E. Dowdall, Mrs. W. Blair, Mrs. Harold E. Wilson and Miss Sara Spencer, assist in preparing the thousands of tags needed for the United Emergency Fund for Britain tag day next Saturday. Taggers will be out on downtown corners from 8.30 in the morning and all proceeds from the appeal will be used to send parcels to Britain.

Blind From Birth Canadian Pianist Reaches Success

LONDON (CP)—Mary Munn, gifted Canadian blind pianist now living in London, is a philosopher as well as a musician.

"I sometimes think that if statesmen and politicians listened to great music before going in to debate, the world would be saved a lot of headaches," said Mary when interviewed in her home at Ealing Common.

"There is a power in the work of the masters that transcends petty grievances. That at least has been my experience. I get very angry sometimes . . . but it passes when I play the piano or go to a good concert."

Since she first left her native

Montreal 22 years ago, Miss Munn's talent has been divided between Canada, Britain, the United States and European countries. She has given recitals in London regularly since last January and the critics have been unanimous in their praise.

She has been asked to play Greig's piano concerto with the London Symphony Orchestra at the Albert Hall, Nov. 21.

"I regard it as an honor," she said, "and I shall certainly give of my best."

REMARKABLE MEMORY

Born blind, Mary has trained herself since childhood to memorize full-length symphonic works note by note. She can repeat as much as five pages of Mozart after hearing them played only once, complex music has to be learned progressively in five-bar sections. She memorized the Greig concerto in 14 hours.

"When learning a new piano concerto I always study the conductor's score as well. I like to know what to expect from the orchestra, and not have horns coming in when I'm expecting strings."

Tall, with dark hair and a bright smile, Miss Munn first came to London when she was 16 and studied at the Royal Academy of Music. Then she returned to Canada for a 15-week engagement with the CBC in Toronto.

Back in London two years later, a series of piano recitals proved so successful she was invited to play in other European capitals. Seeking a companion for her travels, Mary became friendly with concert and operatic singer Essie Mann. Miss Mann accompanied her to Rome, Budapest and Berlin and enjoyed it so much she gave up singing to become Mary's permanent companion.

"We've been together nearly 13 years now," Miss Munn said. "Our friends call us Munn and Mann—as if we were some sort of comic turn."

The house which they share has two grand pianos in the drawing-room—one for each. It will be to let next January, however, as Miss Munn is returning to Canada for a concert tour.

Australian Homes Save Fat For U.I.

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP)—Homes in Victoria State are contributing 6,000 pounds of fat weekly to the Fat for Britain appeal. Seventy tons have already arrived in Britain.

Fat from individual homes is delivered to 500 sub-depots, and finally to the appeal committee's main depot in South Melbourne. Two Melbourne factories render it down without charge. The fat is then shipped to Britain in steel drums.

Circles Report — Reports of circles were heard at the meeting of King's Daughters. It was announced that the lunch room was showing a steady increase in patrons. Fellowship Circle is planning a case wheel stretcher for King's Daughters Hospital at Duncan. Hawthorne circle is sewing children's flannelette nighties for Britain, and Speedwell circle plans a rummage sale to be held early in January. All circles will have their annual meeting in December with district annual meeting in January. Annual church service will be Jan. 16 at Metropolitan United Church. Highlight of the evening was the visit of Mrs. R. F. McKenzie, provincial president, who spoke of the Dominion conventions and international conventions held during the year. Following business, refreshments were served by Fellowship and Speedwell Circles.

Lutheran League Plans Bazaar-Tea

Members of the Hope Lutheran Women's League will hold a tea and sale of home cooking, needlework and useful gifts for Christmas, on Dec. 8, from 1.30 to 5 and from 7 until 9 in the evening, in the basement of the church, Princess and Chambers Street.

Dorothy Dix

Dear Miss Dix: I am a girl of 18 and I know a great deal about life. Your articles shock me with some of your old-fashioned ideas. Why should not a woman do as she pleases? Tell me where there is a man with so spotless a past that he can question any manner of life his wife or sweetheart may have lived?

Certainly the day is past when a girl's only thought is of marrying. Why, then, must she consider her every move in fear that no man will marry her? I believe that a girl has a right to her own mind and actions.

Answer: I am sorry you consider my ideas so old-fashioned, but the Ten Commandments also are old-fashioned. So is Nature. So are the rules of conduct that civilization has built up through thousands of years of experimenting in the relationship of men and women.

Of course, a man may have no more right to demand a woman with a spotless past than she has to demand a Joseph as a husband. But the trouble is he does. Mighty few men are broad and liberal in their views when it comes to their own wives.

Girls don't have to consider whether a man will marry them or not, only it just happens that practically every girl in the world wants to get married, and this is the one subject that she does spend her time considering.

How To Make Dreams Come True, If You Can Take The Consequences

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A month ago, Frank Bowers had a dream. He robbed a bank and when he counted the cash there was $70,000 in the pile. But he woke up and the money was gone.

So Bowers set about to make the dream come true—with hard cold, glittering cash in the pile instead of the nebulous stuff of which dreams are made.

He opened an account at the Barnett National Bank and got a key to the night depository. A carpenter by trade, he fashioned a gadget from a hat-stretcher and a couple of boards. It looked like the perfect thing-a-ma-bob to make his dreams come true.

On Saturday night, Bowers unlocked the little door to the night depository, stuffed the gadget in the chute, closed the door and walked away and waited.

A man came along, dumped some money bags in the chute and left. Bowers went up and fished them out. Pretty soon two more men came along and shoved in money bags. Bowers lifted them out too.

He went away and counted the loot. It was $552.96 in cash and, about $900 in checks. He tossed the checks into the St. Johns River.

Then he returned to his new-found mint, but this time there was a crowd around the place. Someone had discovered the gadget in the chute.

So Bowers left in a hurry, but not before a bystander noticed his excitement. His description was broadcast and police picked him up. They found some of the cash in his pocket and some in a tool box.

Bowers, a slightly-built man of 32, admitted it all in federal court today. He pleaded guilty to violating the Federal Bank Robbery Act and had only one explanation—the dream of that shining $70,000 in cash.

CHINESE SEE MODERN TRACTOR—In China, where hand labor still prevails, modern farm machinery is being demonstrated. Some of 600 farmers who gathered in Shanghai to observe latest farm equipment watch a tractor in action.

West Germany Black Markets Shift Since Money Changes Introduced

BERLIN (AP)—Currency reform in western Germany has changed the fortunes of many a black market and brought the world a thriving new one.

The cigarette, once good as gold on bargain counters of the defeated, plunged dizzily in western Germany with the birth of the Deutsche mark. It held nearly its own only in blockaded Berlin, buoyed up in the uncertain swirl of crisis.

SWING IN CIGARETTES

U.S. cigarettes used to bring about 100 marks a package. After currency reform they dropped to about five marks. Taking into consideration the fact that the mark was slashed on a 10-for-one basis, the new price for cigarettes still reflects the heavy blow dealt to this black market.

In Berlin, however, a package of cigarettes still gets around 10 west-marks.

Candy bars, coffee and soap, which opened many doors to easy money in the first days of occupation, also have lost much of their barter power. Men say they would rather work for the marks.

The new mark itself, resting on the European Recovery Program, made two nations out of Germany overnight, one rooted in the coal pits and forges of the Ruhr, the other chained to the dismal economy of the Soviet occupation.

A black market sprang up in Berlin as soon as Russian authorities followed the western currency reform with a money change of their own and banned the Deutsche or "Clay" mark from east Germany. The "Clay" mark hit a four-for-one ratio with the Soviet or "Sokolovsky" mark, and with slight fluctuations has held that ratio.

Military payment certificates (scrip) used by Americans and Britons get about 11 marks for $1 in western Germany. Real greenbacks buy 13 to 14 marks. New York set the exchange rate there at six to 6 marks for $1. At present there is no international rate except for import-export transactions where it is pegged at one mark for 30 cents.

LESS CANDY NOW

The cigarette and candy markets in western Germany dwindled greatly even before currency reform was adopted. The boom was the first days after the war when a week's army post exchange ration would keep a man living comfortably for a month on marks from the ration sale.

Small fortunes were built by changing marks into dollars at 10 cents each. Currency reform stopped that.

The cigarette market thrived for a couple of years, however, on shipments from overseas until these were banned in 1947.

Barter in post-exchange items was still good for laundry, work around the house and auto repairs, but it no longer built fortunes.

The new mark dealt a death blow to all this in western Germany, outside Berlin. The cigarette no longer is the factor it once was in German life, and its value is less than in French or Italian black markets.

Keremeos Rancher Shows Best Hereford

KAMLOOPS (CP)—A 1,000-pound Hereford steer exhibited by Frank Richter of Keremeos was chosen as the champion of the open classes at the 10th annual provincial fat stock show which began here Tuesday.

Dean J. Grant MacEwan of University of Manitoba selected a Hereford shown by Mrs. Laura Wood of Armstrong as the reserve open champion.

The grand champion of the show is being chosen today.

Rampaging Chicago Knocks Off Rangers

Buddy O'Connor came back to the New York Rangers last night. But his return didn't help either the floundering Rangers or the battered O'Connor.

O'Connor got two stitches in the head and the Rangers took a 4 to 2 defeat from the Chicago Black Hawks.

Chicago's win in the National Hockey League's only scheduled game put the Hawks in a fourth-place tie with Toronto Maple Leafs, one point back of Montreal Canadiens. It left Rangers five points in behind the cellar.

It was the first game this year for O'Connor, runner-up in the league's scoring race last season. He was injured in a pre-season auto crash.

The two stitches went in after he was hit on the head by a puck in the warm-up before the game.

In tonight's games, second place Detroit Red Wings—re-forced by the return of high-scoring centre Ted Lindsay who has been out of action with a broken foot—are at home to Toronto. Chicago moves on to Boston to meet the first-place Bruins.

Edgar LaPrade scored both Rangers' goals, aided each time by Ed Kullman. For the Hawks it was Doug Bentley, Jim Conacher, Gaye Stewart and Bep. Guidolin.

BOLSTER LINEUPS

Both Toronto and Detroit announced last night they were bringing men up from the minors for tonight's game.

Leafs called up Ray Ceresino from Pittsburgh Hornets to fill in for utility man Joe Klukay, out for a rest with a bad ankle.

Detroit brought defenceman Lee Fogolin from Indianapolis Caps to bolster the Red Wings back-stopping staff.

Detroit coach Tommy Ivan breathed easier with the return of Lindsay, flashy centre player. Red Wings won only two of the five games they played since the injury to the only unanimous choice for the N.H.L. all-star team last year.

"I never know one man could make such a difference to a team," Ivan said.

SUMMARY

First Period—1, Chicago, Bentley (R. Conacher), 44; 2, Chicago, J. Conacher, 9:10; 3, Chicago, Stewart (J. Conacher), 9:30; 4, New York, LaPrade (Kullman), 19:11. Penalties: Goldham, Stewinski, Shero (2), McCaig, Bentley, Gadsby.

Second Period—5, Chicago, Guidolin, 10:31; 6, New York, LaPrade (Kullman, Morris), 16:35. Penalty: Leswick.

Third Period—Scoring, none. Penalties: Brown (major and misconduct).

Goblin Gridders To Play In Seattle

Manager Wally Smith of the Oak Bay Goblins junior Canadian football team announced last night that the Goblins would fly to Seattle Dec. 10 for an exhibition American Football game with Lakeside Boys' Club.

The game will be played under the lights at Civic Memorial Stadium.

The local club is also billed to play an exhibition game against Vancouver Blue Bombers in Vancouver Boxing Day, Dec. 27.

TURKEY WINNERS

In the turkey competition at the Uplands Golf Club over the weekend winners were: B. Lashmar with a score of 101-20-81; K. Lea with 77-6-71 and J. Sparks, 80-9-71.

New York (Park Arena)—Al Guido, 145½, New York, out-pointed Mario Morano, 145, New York, 8.

Al Sced Boosts K V's Stock; Play 'Y' Tonight

Running one, two in the senior A basketball race, Y.M.C.A. and K.V.'s tangle tonight in the feature of a triple cage program at the High School gym at 9.

K.V.'s, improved since the acquisition of big Al Sced from the senior B team, knocked off Pro Pats on Saturday for their second straight victory. It will be remembered that Pro Pats the week before dropped the "Y" from the undefeated ranks.

In his only two senior A starts this season Sced hasn't found the chores too difficult, racking up 12 points in each game. His height has assisted greatly in control of the boards at both ends.

At present the "Y" holds a six-point edge over K.V.'s and the orange shirts need the win if they hope to overhaul Reg Clarkson's club in the race for the league title.

Two preliminaries will precede the main attraction. Esquimalt Genii and Bomberettes, girls' junior squads, clash at 7 with R.C.N. and K.V.'s intermediate A boys meeting in the middle game at 8.

Senior A squads are not scheduled to play Saturday.

Jimmy Conacher Tied For Second

Boston and Chicago players continue to dominate the National Hockey League scoring race. Jimmy Conacher of the Hawks last night picked up a goal and an assist to move into a second-place tie with team-mate Doug Bentley, two points behind leader Grant Warwick of Boston, who has chalked up 20 points.

Roy Conacher, Chicago winger, garnered one assist to climb into a tie with Ted Kennedy of Toronto for third place. Each has 16 points.

Leaders follow:

	G	A	Pts
Warwick, Boston	11	9	20
Conacher, Chicago	9	9	18
Bentley, Chicago	7	11	18
Kennedy, Toronto	8	8	16
R. Conacher, Chicago	8	11	16
Bahand, Boston	8	7	15

Prolific Scoring Marks Games In Junior Ice Loop

High-scoring games were the order of the night in the Western Canada Junior Hockey League last night as Calgary Buffaloes downed Bellevue Lions 9 to 7 and Medicine Hat Tigers swamped Lethbridge Native Sons 7 to 2.

At Bellevue, the league-leading Buffaloes held an 8 to 2 advantage going into the third period but had their work cut out for them to withstand a determined third-period drive by the cellar-dwelling Lions.

The Buffs now show an eight-point lead over the runner-up Regina and Most Jaw entries.

Johnny Michaluk and Bob Carlson paced the Calgary attack, the former getting three goals and the latter two. Other markers were credited Ross Tyrell, Schmied, Sid Finney and McDonald.

HOLD BIG EDGE

At Lethbridge, the Tigers showed superiority in every department in downing the fourth-place Lethbridge squad.

The Sons, just returned from an exhibition tour to the Pacific coast, appeared exhausted from their trip and it was only the good netminding of goalie Rodzyak that kept the score from mounting to even higher proportions.

Bob Holmes and Bud Kobussen scored twice each for the winners while Doug Hage, Gerald Barre and Jenkins got one each. Bill Ramsden and Wood counted for Lethbridge.

McFayden New Head Of Ontario Hockey

TORONTO (CP)—J. J. McFayden of Galt, Ont., Tuesday was elected by acclamation as president of the Ontario Hockey Association for 1948-49.

He replaces George Panter of Gravenhurst.

Other officers elected include treasurer George S. Dudley, Midland; secretary, W. A. Hewitt, Toronto.

They will be installed at the O.H.A.'s annual meeting here Saturday.

Clovechok's Goal Earns Edmonton Keen Hockey Win

SASKATOON (CP)—Edmonton Flyers caught a tartar Tuesday night in the last-place Saskatoon Quakers in a Western Canada Senior Hockey League game but finally managed to nose out the hapless Quakers 3 to 2 on the strength of two last-period goals.

Through the victory, gained on Andy Clovechok's goal in the 15th minute of the final session, last year's Allan Cup champions strengthened their hold on second place. Flyers are six points behind the league-leading Regina Caps. Quakers have scored only two victories in 17 games.

Quakers, playing in a manner that belied their poor record this season, ran up a 2 to 0 lead in the opening period on goals by Mike Yaschuk and Reg Bentley although Flyers managed to get one of those tallies back before the period ended when Billy Maher scored. Flyers' other goal was scored by Colin Kilburn.

Clovechok's marker actually served as a measure of atonement for an earlier miscue. It had been his ill-fortune to kick the puck into the net on the goal credited to Yaschuk.

Bentley scored his goal on a pass from Eddie Leier. Gordie Watt was alone at the Edmonton defence when Leier and Bentley broke away and the Saskatoon pair beat him handily.

Maher's goal came on a screened shot.

McKenley's 400-Metre Mark Gets Recognition

LONDON (AP)—The International Amateur Athletic Federation announced Tuesday it has recognized 10 new world records in track and field, including Herb McKenzie's 45.9 seconds for the 400 metres.

The Jamaica star's mark, established in the United States A.A.U. meet at Milwaukee, Wis., last July 2, was the only one posted by an athlete from the western hemisphere. All the others were made by Europeans.

Fanny Blankers-Koen, The Netherlands housewife who captured four Olympic titles on the red-brick dust of Wembley Stadium here last summer, had three of her earlier performances accepted.

They were in the 100-metre dash, 80-metre hurdles and 400-yard relay "which she ran as a member of the Dutch team." Other records were set by a Belgian, Finn, Briton, Hungarian, Italian and Australian.

The new records follow: 400 metres—45.9 seconds by Herb McKenzie of Jamaica at Milwaukee, Wis., July 2. Previous record 46 seconds by Grover Reiff of Belgium at Brussels Sept. 29. Previous record 51.18 by Gunder Haegg of Sweden. 30,000 metres—One hour, 40 minutes and 46.6 seconds by Mikko Heitanen of Finland at Jyväskylä, Finland, June 20. Previous record one hour, 40 minutes and 57.6 seconds by Jose Ribas of Argentina.

Women's 100 metres—11.5 seconds by Fanny Blankers-Koen at Amsterdam June 20. Previous record 11.3 seconds by Mrs. Blankers-Koen.

Women's 440-yard relay—47.4 seconds by The Netherlands (G. De Jongh, N. Witziers-Timmer, C. V. D. Kade-Koudyia and F. Blankers-Koen) at Ryswyk, Holland, July 25. Previous record 48.8 seconds by The Netherlands.

Women's javelin throw—158 feet, two inches by H. Bauma of Austria at Vienna, June 29. Previous record 154 feet, 11½ inches by A. Steinhilber of Germany.

Stamps Welcomed Home By 30,000 Calgarians

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

THERE'S A LOT of discussion, going on these days among the boys who like to make a wager on their racing selections at California or eastern tracks on the fate of Citation in his invasion of the south. The brilliant three-year-old is working out at Tanforan and is scheduled to start Friday in an allowance event as a prep for his bid in the $50,000 Tanforan Handicap later this month.

CHATTING TO ONE well-known racing follower in the corner barber shop today he hastened to inform me that the Calumet Farm speedball might not find everything too rosy on the California tracks. "You know they just love to knock over those big fellows down there," he said. "Here's a tip, look out for Stepfather in that 50 grand event at Tanforan. Take a look at the chart for that handicap last Thursday and you'll note he was just nipped at the wire by Shannon II. That race was a much better prep than Citation will ever get in any allowance. Of course you can't count Shannon II out but I like Stepfather to take the major split in the big one."

COMING OUT FROM under a hot towel my informant went on to point out that Citation, despite his sensational string of victories, has marked up mighty few records and his times were nothing to shout about. "Citation has been beating a poor crop of thoroughbreds. He is enjoying the same racing luck that marked Sir Barton's string of wins several years ago. But you know what happened to Sir Barton when he eventually hooked up with Man O' War. It wasn't even close. Of course Citation is still a great horse but my argument is that he still hasn't proven himself against tough competition. Let him take the best in California then we'll know he's a truly great piece of horseflesh."

DESPITE THE ARGUMENTS pro and con I'll bet my last cent that the boys in the back rooms will really be loaded with bets when Citation goes post-ward in the Tanforan Handicap. Of course some of the smart ones will lay off him if the odds are too short but in the main the money will be in the Calumet speedster. Just let the boys try and balance their books for that particular race. It will take a lot of smart figuring.

Havana Seeking Ball Franchise In International Loop

HAVANA (AP)—Havana wants a berth in the triple A International Baseball League.

With a population almost hitting the million mark and with daily baseball attendance of from 35,000 to 40,000, Latin America's most baseball-minded capital believes it is sufficiently fit to make the bid. Teams now in the league are Toronto, Montreal, Newark, Jersey City, Rochester, Syracuse, Buffalo and Baltimore.

The triple-A idea, launched by Joe (Papa) Cambria, has gripped the fans and the whole town is talking about the possibility of seeing a strong, fast-playing Havana team in the International League.

Cambria, busiest ball scout in Latin America, represents Washington Senators of the American League and is general manager of Havana Cubans, three-time champions of the Florida International League, now a class B loop.

OAK BAY SOCCER—Oak Bay intermediate soccer squad will practice at Windsor Park Thursday night at 8. A full turnout is requested.

CALGARY (CP)—Calgary Stampede—and the Grey Cup—came home today to the greatest sports ovation in the history of the foothills city.

The roar of more than 30,000 madly-cheering fans and civic reception climaxed the new Dominion football champions' triumphant homecoming from Toronto.

Huge banners recording "Calgary 12 Ottawa 7"—the score of Calgary's first victory in the annual gridiron classic—and "Welcome Stampede" fluttered in a crisp, wintry breeze as fans began to assemble in the C.P.R. station hours before the arrival of Stampede's special train.

Coach Les Lear and his swash-buckling cowboys were paraded through downtown streets in open cars to the accompaniment of victory marches played by brass and pipe bands.

Also taking part in the parade were the wives and sweethearts of the players and more than 400 hometown rooters who went east to cheer Stampede to victory over Ottawa Roughriders.

Following the parade, the players were officially welcomed back to the city by Mayor J. C. Watson and other civic officials.

The homecoming climaxed the tumultuous ovations accorded the gridiron heroes throughout the return trip from Toronto.

WESTERN FANS CHEER CHAMPS

At every stop of the special train hundreds of western fans turned out to cheer the new champions on their way.

Fort William, Winnipeg, Portage La Prairie, Brandon, Regina and Medicine Hat all tendered civic congratulations to the club that captured the imaginations of all Canada with their spectacular uphill fight to Canada's gridiron title.

Hundreds of Fort William residents, headed by civic officials, turned out at 1 a.m. in the morning to cheer the westerners. Later the scene was duplicated in Manitoba and Saskatchewan cities.

Winnipeggers welcomed the Calgary Stampede almost as if they were their own team as the C.P.R. Stampede special drew in en route west. The depot was packed to the barbershop as football fans massed in to welcome a western team back to the west.

2,500 Turn Out At Regina

"It's been like this all the way," croaked one weary but happy Calgarian when the Grey Cup champion Stampede and their trainload of hometown supporters were met by an estimated 2,500 persons at the Regina C.P.R. station last night.

The crowds started gathering long before train time and when the Dominion rugby champions arrived in Regina they could barely squeeze into the station. The fans were perched everywhere.

Many persons never got inside the station to hear the band or the players' comments. Some had to be satisfied with the square dance the travelers staged outside in the street.

The Stetsons were a bit crumpled and some voices barely audible but the Calgarians whispered their thanks. It was only one of the overwhelming receptions they have received on their homeward route after Stamps' 12 to 7 victory Saturday over Ottawa Roughriders at Varsity Stadium in Toronto.

Rousing western welcomes were received by the Calgary Stampede—Grey Cup champions—and their 400 hometown rooters when the westerners' special victory train made short stopovers Tuesday at Brandon and Portage La Prairie, Man.

Thousands of cheering Portageers saluted the Dominion rugby champions and another crowd met them here.

PLANES HERALD ARRIVAL

Prior to the train's arrival at Portage La Prairie it was met several miles out of the city by two aircraft from the Portage Flying Club. The planes were decked with banners displaying the words "Welcome Stampede."

Portage schoolchildren were allowed time off from school to meet the Stampede players. L. Henderson and members of his city council led the cheering throng at the C.P.R. station.

Medicine Hat had the honor of being the first Alberta centre to welcome Stampede back to their home province. Hundreds of citizens cheered the players to the echo as civic officials presented them with individual mementoes. Stampede players will be feted by the city again Friday when an official civic banquet will be given in their honor. Alberta government officials will extend congratulations on behalf of the province.

At the banquet, each player will be presented with an engraved gold belt buckle and belt. The buckles will be similar to those presented to the hockey edition of the Stampede which captured the Allan Cup in 1946.

Veteran Savold Looks In Shape To Meet Woodcock

EASTBOURNE, Sussex, Eng. (AP)—Lee Savold, the veteran Paterson, N.J., heavyweight, fairly danced through a workout Tuesday in the presence of British boxing writers. The blond American meets Empire champion Bruce Woodcock in London, Dec. 6.

Savold boxed, skipped the rope, punched the bag and shadow-boxed for half an hour and not in wait time either. At the end of the stint he wasn't even puffing.

Savold, who started his empty-eight comeback last March by knocking out Gino Guzzino in Madison Square Garden, is in good shape physically and mentally. With five more training days to go, he weighs 192. Manager Bill Daly and trainer Tex Pette said he would weigh 190 for Woodcock.

If Savold comes up with an outstanding triumph he may find himself battling Joe Louis for the heavyweight championship next June. Louis has said he will defend his crown against either Savold or the winner of the Joe Baksi-Ezzard Charles fight. Baksi and Charles will meet in New York Dec. 10.

Woodcock, of course, could project himself into the picture by whipping Savold.

Rangers Score Fifth Straight Table Tennis Win

Rangers continued their winning ways in the senior division of the Victoria Table Tennis Association this week by defeating Jokers, 19-9. It was Rangers fifth straight triumph without defeat.

Devlin took six games to pace Rangers' attack.

Capitals upset Victoria Bottle Exchange, 21-15 with Jack Seedhouse setting the pace with a seven-game triumph.

Arrows came through with their first win of the campaign with a close 19-17 win over Robinson's Grocery. Stan Ngai was high man, winning eight games.

In the other match San San Flooring and Macdonald Electric played to a 18 to 18 tie.

In junior games Bombers defeated Cardinals 30-27 and Five Aces lost to Senators, 30-20.

Canucks Rally For Hockey Tie With Pacesetting Royals

A capacity crowd of 5,000 howling fans in Vancouver, encouraged their home town Canucks to a 3 to 3 overtime tie with the New Westminster Royals Tuesday night.

The Royals, leading the race in the northern division of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, ran up a 3 to 1 advantage in the first two periods.

The Canucks rallied to connect twice in the final period and both squads were scoreless in the overtime.

In a wild final period at Fresno, the Los Angeles Monarchs rammed home three tallies while the Fresno Falcons got only one to give the Monarchs a 5 to 3 victory.

In the final minute of play, with two Los Angeles men in the penalty box, the Falcons sent five forwards against the three remaining Monarchs, but were unable to break through to score.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET

(Pacific Standard Time)

Dec. 2—Rises 7:46 a.m.; sets 16:30 p.m.

Los Angeles—Enrique Bolanos, 134½, Mexico City, outpointed Tommy Campbell, 134½, Rock Island, Ill., 12.

For the top spot on the card the local promoter has picked off a real plum. He has matched Jack Kiser, the number one favorite with Victoria fans, against Billy Varga. Both fast and clever the pair are certain to give the customers a great exhibition. They will go eight 10-minute rounds or best two-out-of-three falls.

Third bout will be an hour time limit affair, or best-of-three falls, between Chief Thunderbird and Abe Yourst. Thunderbird signaled his return to the mat, after being laid up with a broken leg, by scoring a victory over rugged Chico Garcia.

First bout will get started at 8.30.

MATCH PLAY—TEERING OUTSIDE THE LIMITS

In the final of a women's tournament in Victoria, one of the girls drove into bad rough at a short hole. The referee made her play again as she had teed up in front of the marks. Here was a case where the referee did not know the rules. It was not for him to recall the shot, but for the opponent, who was not likely to do so even if she had noticed what had happened. The girl drove again and reached the green. It was said that this little incident may have resulted in the girl winning the match from her U.S. opponent. Regina Gridders Would Visit Coast

REGINA (CP)—An official of the Regina Junior Bombers football team, runners-up this season to Saskatoon Hilltops in the Saskatchewan League, said his team would be eager to take on the Vancouver Blue Bombers.

He was commenting on reports that Bombers would like to meet Hilltops, western Canada champs who beat the Vancouver team in the finals, in a two-game series during the Christmas season at the west coast.

Regina Bombers defeated Hilltops 9 to 6 in a league contest against the Saskatoon team.

TIME OUT!

By Jeff Keate

"A word of warning, sir—watch out for those mischievous valley currents!"

Anderson Made Fans Forget About Backs

TORONTO (CP)—It took the last game of Canada's 1948 football season to make gridiron fans forget—at least temporarily—the old saw that "the backs make the headlines while the linemen make the holes." The man responsible was an unknown in the east—slow-talking, cigar chain-smoking, Chuck Anderson, big negro snap with the Grey Cup holders, Calgary Stampede.

"I ain't gonna touch another ball again, an' I mean ever," drawled Chuck a few hours after the Stamps walloped Ottawa Roughriders 12 to 7 in Saturday's Dominion final. Unknown to him at the time, sports writers were groping for suitable adjectives to describe his playing.

The best, and simplest, they could come up with was "outstanding." The manner in which Chuck "got a chunk" of Rider ball carriers as they tried to crack the Calgary line almost confirmed grandstand suspicion he was eavesdropping on Ottawa huddles—he could "smell" a play the length of the field.

His exit from football—if it stands—achieved what few linemen could do all season in big-time football in eastern and western Canada. He got the rave notices while some of the backs were "razzed."

BACKFIELDERS IN SPOTLIGHT

Throughout the season, linemen have been picking their names out of the line-ups in newspapers, usually in small type, while the backfield boys had their names—and pictures—screamed at them in bold, black type.

Statistics compiled by the Canadian Press in eastern and western football show the front wall brigade streets behind the backs in the scoring parade. And a check of newspapers reveals a similar trend in the publicity department.

Glaring exceptions, apart from Anderson's becoming personal stock Saturday, are Woody Strode, Calgary end in the western Canada conference and Eric Chipper, Ottawa outside in the Big Four. Chipper scored one touchdown and three field goals but he converted 23 Rider major scores while Strode went over the link for five touchdowns.

It's a safe bet any eastern fan could tell you all about Virgil Wagner, Joe Krol, Tony Golab, Jack Harper, Gerry Walsh, Frank Flickock, Doug Pzyer, in the Ontario Rugby Football Union; Jack Parry, Bruce Cummings and the McFarlane brothers, Bob and Don, in the Intercollegiate Union.

In western Canada, they'll do the same with Paul Rowe, Ken Charlton, Gabe Patterson, Keith Spait—now Anderson.

How many linemen can you name in a hurry?

High Soccer Final Opens Tomorrow

Opening game of the best-of-three final for the inter-high soccer championship trophy is scheduled tomorrow at the Victoria High grounds with the home squad playing host to Oak Bay. Game time is 3.30.

It was announced by Vic High officials, however, that if inclement weather conditions continue the field will be unsuitable for use, and the game will be changed possibly to Windsor Park.

The city squad are defending champs and marked up a close 1 to 0 decision over Bays in the round-robin semi-final series to capture the round with an undefeated and unscathed record. Both clubs are expected to be at full strength for the tussle.

Outstanding Player

With regard to Stroke Rule 7 we read at end of rule, "Penalty—Disqualification." This does not mean that the player is disqualified for teeing outside the limits. It means the player is disqualified if he fails to obey the rule and does not play his second stroke from within the limits.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—Vic Marsillo is a little guy with a big peeve. He also has a heavy-weight named Mello Bettina and a bountiful flow of what passes for the English language. . . . The combination is terrific if he gets you cornered. . . . Vic, it seems, was the guy who brought Jersey Joe Walcott out of retirement but couldn't actually manage Joe because he also was a promoter. . . . In the course of events, he found he no longer had anything to do with Walcott.

"I took him when he actually had cardboard in his windows," Marsillo protests. "What hurts was that he never put in a word for me. When I had Jersey Joe I turned down Bettina because I didn't think Walcott would like him. Now I know he can't and I want to be a stumbling block for Walcott. . . . Mello is 32." Marsillo mused, "but he's no older than the other guys fighting now. The fight writers look at me kinda funny when I talk about him, but they also looked at me funny when I brought the other guy up from Camden."

AGAINST TELEVISION

Marsillo also is a leader of the anti-television group in the boxing managers' "Guilt."

Here's how he sees it: "You have a guy fighting at the park arena and he gets maybe a hundert from the television. It's a cold, snowy night so nobody goes to see the fight. They go over to the tavern and see it on television. . . . The next day they meet you on the street and say: 'I seen your boy last night, Vic, and he didn't look very good.'"

Ottawa Riders Get Condolence Cup

OTTAWA (CP)—Ottawa Roughriders—and future losers in the east-west football final—will receive a cup.

At a reception the Riders will be presented with the Condolence Cup, awarded by the Ottawa Men's Press Club. Calgary Stampede defeated Ottawa 12 to 7 at Toronto Saturday to win the Grey Cup.

The Condolence Cup will be presented annually to the losers in the Grey Cup competition.

MOTORCYCLE CLUB

Victoria Motorcycle Club will hold its annual banquet at the Club Sirocco, Dec. 10 at 7.15.

Clarence Campbell Explains New Rule

NEW YORK (CP)—Clarence S. Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, Tuesday said there was no ulterior motive behind his recent ban on fraternization among players of different N.H.L. teams.

"It's just good sense," he said, that participants in a game involving "so much violent body contact" should not appear too friendly in public. What would the average spectator think, he asked, if after watching a knock-down, drag-out fight he then saw some of the opposing fighters engaged in friendly conversation or dining.

He said he objected especially to the way players sometimes assembled casually before a game instead of attending to their individual business. He said the ruling applied on the ice and in any other public place.

CRUSADE IN EUROPE

First Peace Feeler

Installment 25

Simultaneously with all these operations on the north equally decisive movements were progressing in the south. The principal line of advance was southeast down the Danube Valley toward Linz, with the purpose of joining up with the Russians in Austria.

Since Bradley's offensive in the centre had already its objectives we had the Third Army available to conduct this drive while the Sixth Army Group gave its entire attention to overrunning the Redoubt area farther to the south and west.

With his main forces pushing down the Danube, Patton's Third Army was now reinforced by the V Corps from Hodges' army. Patton directed the V to push eastward into Czechoslovakia. The corps captured Pilsen May 6.

In this area the Russian forces were rapidly advancing from the east and careful co-ordination was again necessary. By agreement we directed the American troops to occupy the line Pilsen-Karlsbad, while south of Czechoslovakia the agreed line of junction ran down the Budejovice-Linz railroad and from there along the valley of the Enns River.

The final major move of Patton's Seventh Army in Devers' army group began April 22. On the right flank the XV Corps moved down the Danube and turned southward to strike at Munich, the place of origin of the Nazi movement.

German Defences Disintegrate

That great city was captured April 30. On May 4 the Third Division of the same corps captured Berchtesgaden. Other troops occupied Salzburg. The defenses of the entire sector disintegrated.

Throughout the front principal objectives in all sectors were attained by the end of April or their early capture was a certainty. The great advances had the effect of multiplying many of the administrative, maintenance, and organizational problems with which we constantly had to wrestle.

Again a tremendous strain was placed upon our supply lines. Distant and fast-moving columns were sometimes almost solely dependent upon air supply, and during April we kept 1,500 transport planes constantly working in our supply system. They became known as "flying box-cars" and were never more essential than in these concluding stages of the war.

Besides these planes we stripped and converted many heavy bombers to the same purpose. During the month of April the air forces delivered to the front lines 60,000 tons of freight, in which was included 10,000,000 gallons of gasoline.

On each return trip from the front our transports and converted bombers brought back plane-loads of recaptured Allied prisoners. These men were concentrated at convenient camps for rehabilitation and early transfer to the homelands. Near Le Havre, in one camp alone, called Lucky Strike, we had at one time 47,000 recovered American prisoners.

One day I had an appointment to meet five United States senators. As they walked into my office I received a telegram from a staff officer, stating that a newspaper article alleged the existence at the Lucky Strike camp of intolerable conditions. The story said that men were crowded together, were improperly fed, lived under unsanitary conditions, and were treated with an entire lack of sympathy and understanding.

'Ike' And Senators Off For Lucky Strike

Even if the report should prove partially true it represented a very definite failure to carry out strict orders somewhere along the line. I determined to go see for myself and told my pilot to get my plane ready for instant departure. I turned to the five senators, apologized for my inability to keep my appointment, and explained why it was necessary for me to depart instantly for Lucky Strike. I told them, however, that if they desired to talk with me they could accompany me on the trip. They all accepted with alacrity.

In less than two hours we arrived at Lucky Strike and started our inspection. We roamed around the camp and found no basis for the startling statements made in the disturbing telegram. There were only two points concerning which our men exhibited any impatience. The first of these was the food. It was of good quality and well cooked, but the doctors would not permit salt, pepper, or any other kind of seasoning to be used because they were considered damaging to men who had undergone virtual starvation over periods ranging from weeks to years.

The other understandable complaint was the length of time that men were compelled to stay in the camp before securing transportation to America. This was owing to lack of ships. Freighters, which constituted the vast proportion of our overseas transport service at that stage of the war, were not suited for transportation of passengers. So pleased did the soldiers seem to be by our visit that they followed us around the camp by the hundreds. When we finally returned to the airplane we found that an enterprising group had installed a loud-speaker system, with the microphone at the door of my plane.

In hundreds of places under almost every kind of war condition I had talked to American soldiers, both individually and in groups up to the size of a division. But on that occasion I was momentarily at a loss for something to say. Everyone of those present had undergone privation beyond the imagination of the normal human.

Double Shifts In Bunks Going Home

Then I had a happy thought. It was an idea for speeding up the return of these men to the homeland. So I took the microphone and told the assembled multitude there were two methods by which they could go home. The first of these was to load on every returning troopship the maximum number for which the ship was designed. This was current practice.

EISENHOWER MAKES VICTORY SPEECH—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Supreme Allied Commander, as he broadcast his victory speech May 7, 1945, from SHAEF in the now-famous Reims industrial school, following the signing of the historic document in which Germany surrendered to the Allies. At the right is Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur William Tedder, Deputy Allied Supreme Commander. Neither Eisenhower nor Tedder were present at the actual signing of the document, but later interviewed the three members of the German delegation in Eisenhower's office, where the two Allied chiefs are shown (above).

Then I suggested that, since submarines were no longer a menace, we could place on each of these returning ships double the normal capacity, but that this would require one man to sleep in the daytime so that another soldier could have his bunk during the night.

I asked the crowd which one of the two schemes they would prefer me to follow. The roar of approval for the double-loading plan left no doubt as to their desires.

When the noise had subsided I said to them: "Very well, that's the way we shall do it. But I must warn you men that there are five United States senators accompanying me today. Consequently when you get home it is going to do you no good to write letters to the papers or to your senator complaining about overcrowding on returning ships. You have made your own choice and so now you will have to live with it."

The shout of laughter that went up left no doubt that the men were completely happy with their choice. Some weeks before the final surrender we received intimations that various individuals of prominence in Germany were seeking ways and means of accomplishing capitulation. In no instance did any of these round-about messages involve Hitler himself. On the contrary, each sender was so fearful of Nazi wrath that he was as much concerned in keeping secret his own part in the matter as he was in achieving the surrender of the German armies.

The first direct suggestion of surrender that reached SHAEF came from Himmler, who approached Count Bernadotte of Sweden in an attempt to get in touch with Prime Minister Churchill. On April 26, I received a long message from the Prime Minister, discussing Himmler's proposal to surrender the western front. I regarded the suggestion as a last desperate attempt to split the Allies and so informed Mr. Churchill.

I strongly urged that no proposition be accepted or entertained unless it involved a surrender of all German forces on all fronts. My view was that any suggestion that the Allies would accept from the German government a surrender of only their western forces would instantly create complete misunderstanding with the

'Ja' Says Jodl To 'Ike's Question After Terms Signed, War Over

Likewise, if they wanted to surrender all the forces on a given front, the German commander in the field could do so, and the Allied commander could accept; but the only way the government of Germany could surrender was unconditionally to all the Allies.

This view coincided with the Prime Minister's and he and the President promptly provided full information to Generalissimo Stalin, together with a statement of their rejection of the proposal.

However, until the very last the Germans never abandoned the attempt to make a distinction between a surrender on the western front and one on the eastern. With the failure of this kind of negotiation German commanders finally had, each in his own sector, to face the prospect of complete annihilation or of military surrender.

The first great capitulation came in Italy. Alexander's forces had waged a brilliant campaign throughout the year 1944 and by April 26, 1945, had placed the enemy in an impossible situation. Negotiations for local surrender began and on April 29 the German commander surrendered. All hostilities in Italy were to cease May 2.

This placed the German troops just to the north of Italy in an equally impossible situation. On May 2 the German commander requested the identity of the Allied commander he should approach in order to surrender and was told to apply to Gen. Devers. He was warned that only unconditional surrender would be acceptable. This enemy force was known as Army Group G and comprised the German First and Nineteenth Armies. They gave up on May 5, with the capitulation to be effective May 6.

Far to the north, in the Hamburg area, the German commander also saw the hopelessness of his situation. On April 30 a German emissary appeared in Stockholm to say that Field Marshal Busch, commanding in the north, and Gen. Lindemann, commanding in Denmark, were ready to surrender as quickly as the Allied advance reached the Baltic.

We were told that the Germans would refuse to surrender to the Russians but that, once the Western Allies had arrived at Lubeck and so cut off the forces in that region from the arrival of fanatical SS formations from central Germany, they would immediately surrender to us. Montgomery's forces arrived in Lubeck May 3. By then, however, a great change in the governmental structure of Germany had taken place.

Hitler had committed suicide and the tattered mantle of his authority had fallen to Admiral Doenitz. The admiral directed that all his armies everywhere should surrender to the Western Allies. Thousands of dejected German soldiers began entering our lines. On May 3 Admiral Friedeburg, who was the new head of the German Navy, came to Montgomery's headquarters.

He was accompanied by a staff officer of Field Marshal Busch. They stated that their purpose was to surrender three of their armies which had been fighting the Russians and they asked authority to pass refugees through our lines. Their sole desire was to avoid surrender on these terms and sent the German emissaries back to Field Marshal Kettel, the chief of the German high command.

I had already told Montgomery to accept the military surrender of all forces in his allotted zone

MY SECRET DESIRE

I'VE A SECRET DESIRE . . . as all of us do, so today I think . . . I'll share it with you. I wanna get up in the early dawn, & pitch the paper on your lawn. Just like I did, when I was eleven, riding "no hands" . . . on route No. 7. In all kinds of weather, rain & snow, it seems yesterday . . . 'twas long ago. Yes . . . years ago, I got outta bed, to stumble downstairs, & out to the shed. To find my bike, (& as many another, my silent partner . . . was my mother.) Consoling me by the kitchen fire, when we fixed . . . a punctured tire. Ruining her spoons . . . getting it free, then with warm milk . . . filling me. As I grabbed my bag, then out the gate, 'twas 5 a.m. . . and I was late. Two miles to go . . . 10 minutes more, until I heard . . . the pressor roar. Then out again . . . the open road, but first some pie . . . a la mode. Or sinkers & coffee for a dime, if you HADN'T sold "something" in the meantime. 'Twas an extra then, but today, if you should happen down our way. This Chesterfield, a bed it makes, 'twill save U more for pie an' cakes. The "White Lunch" then . . . was our rendezvous, where once in awhile, somebody threw. A hunk of butter, at the electric fan, while the waiter was facing . . . his frying pan. Cooking for you . . . a bacon & egg, you were rich like a farmer . . . from Winnipeg.

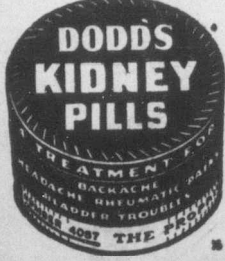

IF YOU'RE from Winnipeg . . . Edmonton . . . Yorkton . . . Saskatoon or any of those places, an especially warm welcome awaits you at . . . HUMBER'S (retail) FURNITURE WAREHOUSE. "Ask your friends."

AH . . . those were the days, they fill me with rapture, just ONE of which . . . I wanna re-capture. I'd know every house, where on my "beat," I curved on the porch . . . the morning sheet. Starting at Quadra . . . the corner of View, till past the Boys' Central, I'd slammed . . . quite a few. Down Yates St. hill, here I shone, from the bars . . . both hands had gone. Flinging each side, like an acrobat, plunking each one . . . right on the door mat. All except ONE . . . that Sunday morn', that living-room window . . . shattered & torn. Then up Fort . . . just the left side, the heaves close . . . a cinch of a tree. Close too . . . was that cherry tree, which ruined many . . . a breakfast for me. And ever in my memory . . . still on file, that owner & . . . his Mona Lisa smile. As I reached for those cherries atop of his tree, from his bathroom window . . . just staring at me. If ONLY he'd shouted across that gap, but he never even . . . opened his trap. Yes . . . this is . . . my secret desire, to ride again . . . but WITHOUT a flat tire. In rolling the dice . . . DO I WIN this heaven, do I smash YOUR window???? SEVEN . . . COME ELEVEN.

of operations. Such a capitulation would be a tactical affair and the responsibility of the commander on the spot. Consequently, when Admiral Friedeburg returned to Montgomery's headquarters on May 4 with a proposal to surrender all German forces in northwest Germany, including those in Holland and Denmark, Montgomery instantly accepted.

No Commitments To Embarrass Government

The necessary documents were signed that day and became effective the following morning. When Devers and Montgomery received these great surrenders they made no commitments of any kind that could embarrass or limit our governments in future decisions regarding Germany; they were purely military in character, nothing else.

On May 5 a representative of Doenitz arrived in my headquarters. We had received notice of his coming the day before. At the same time we were informed that the German government had ordered all of its U-boats to return to port. I at once passed all this information to the Russian high command and asked them to designate a Red Army officer to come to my Headquarters as any Russian representative in any negotiations that Doenitz might propose. I informed them that I would accept no surrender that did not involve simultaneous capitulation everywhere. The Russian high command designated Maj. Gen. Ivan Susluparov.

Must Surrender All German Forces

Field Marshal von Kesselring, commanding the German forces on the Western front, also sent me a message, asking permission to send a plenipotentiary to arrange terms of capitulation. Since von Kesselring had authority only in the west, I replied that I would enter into no negotiations that did not involve all German forces everywhere.

When Admiral Friedeburg arrived at Reims on May 5 he stated that he wished to clear up a number of points. On our side negotiations were conducted by my chief of staff, Gen. Smith. The latter told Friedeburg there was no point in discussing anything, that our purpose was merely to accept an unconditional and total surrender.

Friedeburg protested that he had no power to sign any such document. He was given permission to transmit a message to Doenitz, and received a reply that Gen. Jodl was on his way to our headquarters to assist him in negotiations.

To us it seemed clear that the Germans were playing for time so that they could transfer behind our lines the largest possible number of German soldiers still in the field. I told Gen. Smith to inform Jodl that unless they instantly ceased all pretense and delay I would close the entire Allied front and would, by force, prevent any more German refugees from entering our lines. I would brook no further delay in the matter.

Finally Jodl and Friedeburg drafted a cable to Doenitz requesting authority to make a complete surrender, to become effective 48 hours after signing. Had I agreed to this procedure the Germans could have found one excuse or another for postponing the signature and so securing additional delay. Through Smith, I informed them that the surrender would become effective 48 hours from midnight of that day; otherwise my threat to seal the western front would be carried out at once.

Doenitz at last saw the inevitability of compliance and the surrender instrument was signed by Jodl at 2.41 in the morning of May 7. All hostilities were to cease at midnight May 8.

After the necessary papers had been signed by Field Marshal Jodl and Gen. Smith, with the French and Russian representatives signing as witnesses, Field Marshal Jodl was brought to my office. I asked him through the interpreter if he thoroughly understood all provisions of the document he had signed.

He answered, "Ja." I said, "You will, officially and personally, be held responsible if the terms of this surrender are violated, including its provisions for German commanders to appear in Berlin at the moment set by the Russian high command to accomplish formal surrender to that government. That is all." He saluted and left.

When the fighting in Europe had ended, Gen. Eisenhower was still left with the problem of redeployment, unscrambling the great Allied fighting forces he had led, setting up military government over Germany, and working out some basis for co-operation with the Red Army.

How he faced these problems, and his first contacts with Marshal Zhukov, Red Army leader, are described in tomorrow's installment of "Crusade in Europe" which will be published in the Victoria Times.

The Victoria Civic Non-Partisan League, a group of citizens which is seeking to promote keener interest in civic affairs and to support men who will give the best in civic government, endorses these candidates, not for party or affiliation but their individual capacity for progressive, common sense administration.

Carpenters Vote To Strike If Pay Increase Not Given

Carpenters in the Greater Victoria area, the majority members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and some non-union men, have voted 3½-to-one for a strike if their basic wage scale is not increased from $1.40 an hour to $1.55.

The strike vote completed Tuesday night was government supervised.

It is not known how many of the city's approximately 1,200 carpenters voted. The United Brotherhood has about 800 members. It is estimated there are about 400 non-union carpenters in the area.

NO IMMEDIATE ACTION

A union official said no action on the vote will be taken until next week at least.

Next move must be taken by contractors. There are approximately 40 major contractors in the city. Twenty-seven of them are members of the Victoria Builders' Exchange.

The exchange members will meet Thursday night to discuss the situation.

Twelve of them took part in a conciliation board hearing several weeks ago from which a majority ruling called for payment of 7½ cents an hour increase instead of 15 cents.

A second conciliation board recommended the 15-cent boost. Exchange members did not present evidence to the second board.

MONDAY MEETING

If contractors refuse this week to grant the 15-cent pay boost, union carpenters probably will meet next Monday to discuss the question and make a decision on striking.

A union member said it is unlikely the carpenters would hold off their strike until after New Year's if the 15-cent-an-hour pay increase is not given them.

European Recovery Important Factor For Export Trade

"There is real hope of rebuilding a functioning system of world trade," said Mr. H. D. Burns, president of the Bank of Nova Scotia, at the 117th annual meeting of the bank today. "Britain and certain other European countries have made substantial progress in restoring their production and trade. The European recovery program is providing the essential time to press ahead their individual and joint plans of recovery."

At the same time, Mr. Burns stressed that "there is still a long way to go before most overseas countries reach a position in which they are likely to ease their import and exchange restrictions. Unfortunately, the problems of payment remedy and even with the vital assistance of the European recovery program, most overseas countries continue to be extremely short of dollars and are restricting their dollar expenditures accordingly. This has already had a serious impact on Canadian trade."

"Our trading problem is not simply a question of balancing our receipts and outlays of U.S. dollars. Fundamentally, it is one of keeping overseas markets for export produce for which we cannot expect to find adequate or lasting markets on this continent."

Mr. Enman, general manager, reviewed changes in the bank's business and in Canadian financial developments. He also referred to the subject of nationalizing the chartered banks. "In my opinion, the question is simply this: Would the public interest be better served by a nationalized banking system than by the present type of system? Nationalization is surely not an end in itself."

"Government ownership of the banks would replace the present competitive system with a monopoly. Monopolies are usually less responsive to the public interest because there is no one ready to take their business away from them if they do not function efficiently," and government monopolies even less so "since they are not subject to the threat of government intervention and control."

Pass First Two Readings On By-law

First two readings were given the $370,000 money by-law to provide Saanich with an improved water supply, at a special meeting of the municipal council Tuesday night.

By-law will be presented to the ratepayers at the Dec. 18 elections. If approved, a 7,000,000 gallon reservoir will be constructed on high ground a mile east of the Royal Oak hall and 15,000 feet of 16-inch cast iron water mains will be installed.

Bootlegger Says Act Was One Of Pity; Cost Him $300 Or Prison

Robert Murray, a middle aged man, pleaded guilty to unlawfully selling rye whisky, but explained to Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today that he got the liquor for the constable who got the evidence against him "because the man was so sick I took pity on him."

He was fined $300 or in default of payment, three months in jail at hard labor.

Constable Napoleon Bouchard, with a several-day growth of whiskers on his face and wearing an old slouch hat and rough clothes, was the officer involved.

He told the court that on Nov. 27 he went to accused's room, gave him $6 and secured two pints of rye. Officer said he supplied Murray and two other persons in the room with a drink—"and don't forget you had one yourself," interjected accused.

Accused said he brought the whisky from a Chinese, only because the man looked so sick.

Temporary Repairs To 200-Foot Cave-in May Start Today

Possibility that temporary repairs might be started later today to the 200 feet on Dallas road, near the breakwater, which has been barricaded following a cave-in Tuesday, was seen by the city public works department today.

Ald. J. D. Hunter, chairman of the public works committee of City Council said the department was calling for prices on sheet piling for temporary repairs, in order to prevent further erosion.

"The work will be done as soon as possible," he said.

The cave-in which threatens to cut the Marine Drive in two, came without warning shortly before 8, and washing away of that section of Dallas beach by recent heavy seas is blamed.

It will be a major job, said Cyril Jones, acting city engineer.

Preliminary investigations show that the sand below a seawall east of the breakwater has been shifted away from the wall. Pressure of earth on the road side of the wall has pushed its base outward, leaving it leaning precariously.

A sidewalk next to the wall has dropped about 12 feet.

Mr. Jones believes it will be necessary to drive piles along the length of the wall to hold back the earth and save the road from sliding into the sea. The leaning wall would have to be removed.

The road barricades were thrown up at Oswego and Dock Streets, cutting off two blocks of the Marine Drive.

A. D. Taylor of the B.C. Pilotage Authority which has offices near the cave-in, reported the slide to police who called in the engineering department.

Annual meeting of the Victoria and District Chrysanthemum Society will be held at the City Hall Thursday night at 8. Officers will be elected for the coming year and instructions will be given on how to take cuttings.

Airpark Situation Debated Tonight

Both sides of the much-discussed Gordon Head airpark situation will be debated at a public meeting to be held tonight at 8 in the C.C.F. Hall on Richmond Road. Questions will be allowed from the floor and the speakers will include Lt.-Col. Horn, president of the B.C. Aviation Council and Leslie Bryce, executive secretary. A feature of the meeting will be the screening of aerial pictures, giving an admirable idea of the whole airport set-up.

Conscientiously Fought Charge, But Gets Jail Term

"I have never pleaded not guilty to a charge I am guilty of. This time I am conscientiously pleading not guilty."

That was the statement of John A. Gibson, who was found guilty on the charge he was so "conscientiously" fighting, pleaded guilty to another, both minor thefts, and was sentenced to six months in prison at hard labor by Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today.

* Charges were theft of three paint brushes from David Spencer Ltd. and a pipe from the United Cigar Store, in both instances value of the goods being under $25.

Constable Albert Wilson said the three brushes were in a paper bag in accused's possession when he was arrested in connection with the pipe theft.

Mrs. J. Christopherson of Spencer's paint department, identified two of the three brushes.

Gibson emphatically denied he had the bag containing the brushes in his possession when taken to the station, claiming he had not been in the store for over a month.

In his memoirs written by himself, but not yet published, appear the names of many fine pioneer families and romantic tales of the early days of Victoria.

Col. H. C. Carey, Native Victorian, Dies At Age Of 83

Col. H. C. Carey, C.M.G., late of the Royal Engineers and a native of Victoria, died at his 1737 Rockland Avenue home Tuesday at the age of 83.

Son of J. Westropp Carey, one-time mayor of Victoria, Col. Carey was born here on Feb. 8, 1865, when Victoria was still part of a Crown Colony. He was educated at what is now Victoria Junior High and won a bronze medal.

At the age of 15, he went to the Royal Military College at Kingston where he won the gold medal for mathematics, as well as other awards.

He was granted a commission in the Royal Engineers in 1884 and served in various stations in England, and later in Halifax, N.S., where he married Kate Mackinlay Moren.

He later served in Bermuda and Hongkong, returning to England where he served seven years in the War Office. He had subsequent service in Ireland and Jamaica, holding the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

He served with Northern Command during the 1914-18 war and was twice mentioned in the London Gazette for meritorious service and was awarded the Order of Companion of St. Michael and St. George.

He retired from army service with the rank of colonel in 1919, and has since made his home at 1737 Rockland Avenue.

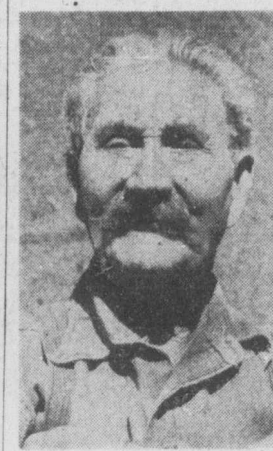

He is survived by his widow and daughter, Mrs. H. Mothershead of Victoria.

Ald. Mulliner Files Nomination Papers

Ald. F. G. Mulliner, chairman of the city's electric light committee, filed nomination papers today with M. Frank Hunter, city clerk.

Others who have filed papers for the aldermanic race are Ald. J. D. Hunter, Ald. Harold M. Diggon, George A. Oakell and A. M. McAuley.

John Irvine, 87, Of Pioneer Family, Passes At Cordova

John Irvine, for many years a resident of Cordova Bay, known to a host of friends as "Long-Gun Jack by the Sea," passed away Tuesday at his home.

He was born 87 years ago at Craigflower.

His parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Irvine, left the Orkney Islands in 1850 aboard a sailing vessel, and after a six-month voyage which took them around Cape Horn they arrived in Victoria on May 10, 1851. A son, William, was born to them in Fort Camosun, and is believed to be the first white boy born on Vancouver Island. A fine pen and ink drawing of the elder John Irvine now hangs in the Provincial Government Archives.

The Irvine family moved to Cedar Hill at the end of 1862, being among the first settlers in the district.

Young John Irvine attended the Cedar Hill School, where, at the beginning, the only text book was the Holy Bible. He later attended the old Victoria High School.

As a young man John drove an express wagon and later became a milk rancher. He married Alice Whittaker in the year 1883. Later, John became foreman of road construction for the District of Saanich and held that post for many years until his retirement.

In his memoirs written by himself, but not yet published, appear the names of many fine pioneer families and romantic tales of the early days of Victoria.

He is survived by two sons, Roy and Delbert, one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Moore, six granddaughters, three grandsons, eight great-grandchildren, and one sister, Miss Margaret Irvine, all of Victoria.

Home-Lighting Contest Revived

Many of Victoria's traditionally beautiful residences will be further enhanced this month with the revival of the colorful Junior Chamber of Commerce's home lighting contest.

Object of the contest, dormant since 1939 is to beautify the city during the festive period and at the same time promote a spirit of friendly rivalry between householders.

On Dec. 23 a caravan of cars will assemble and be led past all homes entered in the contest. The public will be invited to join in the caravan.

Entries must be sent to the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 544, Victoria, by Dec. 18. Decorations must be in place from Dec. 20 to 25 inclusive. No entry fee is required.

Entries will be illuminated from 6 to 9.30 each evening during the contest.

The committee in charge of the competition warns all entrants to use only fixtures out of doors which are designed for the purpose.

There will be numerous prizes for winners in various classes, the committee reports.

Credit Firemen With Fine Work In Big Sidney Blaze

B.C. Police and residents of the North Saanich township of Sidney joined in crediting the fine work of fire-fighters in preventing the spread of the spectacular fire which destroyed the $65,000 Sidney Hotel Tuesday night.

A representative of the Fire Marshal's office in Vancouver has been called to make an investigation into the cause of the blaze, which wiped out the township's oldest landmarks. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Two airmen, guests of the hotel, escaped with personal belongings, but lost kit in the flames.

Fire was discovered at 11.30. The Sidney Volunteer Fire Department was on the scene in less than eight minutes. Their call for help from the Patricia Bay Department of Transport fire department and the Saanich Fire Department were answered with equipment and men.

The fire had secured a strong hold before its discovery. Although a dozen hoses poured thousands of gallons of water onto the structure the flames could not be quelled. Water was secured from hydrants and pumped from the sea.

ing building, which had 20 guest rooms, a kitchen, cafe and dining-room.

The hotel was located on the right-hand side of Beacon Avenue near the township's ferry wharf. Sgt. Chris Jacklin of the B.C. Police had high praise for the efficient work of the volunteer fire department and the help of other departments.

The volunteers with their equipment have been on the job ever since the fire was reported. Sgt. Jacklin noted that the volunteer brigade's equipment was financed by donations from different organizations, but that the men received no remuneration for their efforts.

Today the volunteers stayed away from their work as their presence was still required because of periodic small outbreaks in the smoldering ruins.

Spent 30 Years Investigating Jekyll-And-Hyde Life Of Painter

LONDON (CP)—Did Joseph Mallord William Turner, England's famed but eccentric painter, really live a Jekyll-and-Hyde existence after his supposed funeral in 1851?

A Bristol schoolmaster thought he did, although public records show the great painter died and was buried that year in St. Paul's Cathedral.

For 30 years Frederick Pickles, head of St. George's School in Bristol, spent all his spare time in tracking down and trying to solve what he called the "mysterious and baffling" story of Turner's life.

He ended up convinced that Turner lived in hiding for many years after his "so-called death" in 1851 and left many unknown masterpieces.

Pickles kept his hobby to himself during his lifetime. The strange story was disclosed recently in the will left by the schoolmaster, who died last April at over 80 years of age. It was greeted sceptically by art critics.

In his will Pickles wrote he had "for the last 30 years been engaged in continuous research work on one subject only—the whereabouts and occupation of the mysterious and baffling world renowned artist Joseph Mallord William Turner."

ALWAYS ECCENTRIC

Declaring that the painter "played the part of Jekyll and Hyde from his youth upwards,"

Pickles said that "his final disappearance in the year 1851, the date of his so-called death, was just in keeping with his previous practices."

"Turner lived to be a very old

Holiday Resort In The Bahamas To Cost $8,000,000

NASSAU, The Bahamas (Reuter) — William (Billy) Butlin, founder of successful holiday camps in Britain, is to build an $8,000,000 village here to handle 2,000 holidaymakers by 1952.

The first 1,000 beds are to be ready by Jan. 1, 1950.

This new venture by the former Torontonian is planned to attract visitors in the middle-income bracket who find American winter resorts too expensive.

Holidaymakers will be able to fly direct to Grand Bahama from the northern United States or motor to Palm Beach, Fla., store their cars in garages arranged by the camps and cross by ship—or make a 15-minute flight.

MACHINES AT WORK

Heavy equipment to build holiday village has arrived at Nassau. Tractors, trucks and compressors have been brought by the Butlin firm—known as the Grand Bahama Company—from the United States government for sterling. They were formerly used for the construction of the Kinley Airfield in Bermuda.

The village will have its own airfield capable of handling four-engined aircraft.

Associated with Butlin in the undertaking is Brig.-Gen. A. C. Critchley, Canadian-born British sports promoter. They discussed the scheme with United States industrialists whose employees are expected to provide the bulk of the camp's business, before setting up the company.

Capital to finance it will be underwritten on the London stock market by "friends and business associates of Gen. Critchley and myself," Butlin said.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Gary Quirk, 26-year-old former R.C.A.F. officer, has turned his fondness for aircraft into a position with the Manitoba Power Commission.

Quirk is believed to be the only airman in Canada to cover trouble spots on power lines by air.

With his observer, Stephen Putnam—who was shot down over Germany during the Second World War and held prisoner of war for 18 months—the young pilot each month puts in 25 hours of flying time and covers more than 1,000 miles checking and spotting irregularities.

He looks for broken insulators, sagging wires, lightning damage and leaning poles.

It takes about a week for him to cover his district, which runs west of Winnipeg to the Saskatchewan border and south of Dauphin, Man., to the United States border.

He usually makes his patrol within the first two weeks of each month, using a light, two-seater aircraft.

How to Make a Splendid Cough Syrup at Home

Cough medicines usually contain a large quantity of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one which you can easily make in your own kitchen. Take 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking! No trouble! (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.) Then get from your drugstore 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16 oz. bottle, and fill up with your syrup. This gives you 16 ounces of really splendid medicine for bad winter coughs. It makes a real saving, because it doesn't please you in every way. Pinex Is Dependable. Saves Money. Easy To Mix.

Coal Mine In Yorkshire To Be Reopened Shortly

ALLERTON BYWATER, Yorkshire, Eng. (CP)—Ledston Luck colliery, closed four years ago to free manpower to other coal mines, is to be reopened, and reequipped at a cost of £280,000 ($1,120,000).

In two years the mine is expected to be producing 500 tons of coal a day, and twice that a year later. With modern equipment it is hoped to achieve a daily output each manshift of 40 hundredweight, which would be the highest in the country.

New Types Of Grain Sought By Research

SASKATOON (CP)—Experiments now being conducted at the University of Saskatchewan may result in new forms of wheat and barley.

Radioactive phosphorus is being fed young plants by Professor T. J. Arnason of the biology department and Professor J. W. T. Spinks of the chemistry department.

Different wheat sizes, increased resistance to rust, fungus, smut or insect pests, or a change in maturing period and protein content may arise from the experiments. Radioactivity might also produce unwelcome changes.

Up to a certain amount, the phosphorus has no visibly harmful effect. In too strong doses, the young plants die.

It has been known for some time X-rays will cause hereditary changes or mutations. Radioactive substances give off similar rays. Changes in wheat or barley would result if changes first were caused in the germ cells of the plant.

Dr. Spinks has also been conducting experiments at the agriculture department of the university. Chickens are fed radioactive mash and a study is made of the use their bodies make of certain materials in the food by tracing the radioactive particles.

Man Who Clips Politicians Will Run For Alderman's Post Himself

OTTAWA (CP)—Paul Emile (Red) Tasse, the barber who is celebrated for his friendships with royalty and prime ministers, is gunning for a place in the political sun himself. He wants to be an alderman in Ottawa's City Council.

It's a long way down the ladder from men he has argued with, but the man with the waxed moustache and friendly philosophies would be quite satisfied, at 60, to become alderman for BY Ward in next month's civic election.

Red Tasse is the boss of the Chateau Laurier's eight-chair barber shop, the father of seven children. He's been a close friend of two bachelor prime ministers, Conservative R. B.

Bennett and Liberal Mackenzie King.

He once confounded an English business man who tried unsuccessfully for six weeks to get in to see Mr. Bennett. Red Tasse arranged the interview in a few minutes.

GROW UP TOGETHER

He and Mr. King, he chuckles, have grown up together in Ottawa. In 1919, Mr. King became Liberal leader; Mr. Tasse became barber in the Chateau. They've met over Red's scissors many times since. Tasse invariably saw the prime minister off on his trips, invariably saw him return, usually in his white uniform. Mr. King always greeted him warmly.

When the King and Queen came to Canada in 1939, the barber on their royal train was Red Tasse. The appointment was engineered by Mr. King. The King and the barber, by all accounts, got along well.

Tasse also bartered for the late King Prajadhipok of Siam as well as some Japanese prince, not to mention the late British prime ministers Neville Chamberlain and Stanley Baldwin and countless figures in the political world. He started cutting the hair of Louis Stephen St. Laurent when he was a lawyer.

As a political candidate, he advocates improved methods of child welfare, particularly in the fields of playgrounds and baby clinics.

But he admits that his friendships for the great are no great help here. In fact, they may be a boomerang, for BY Ward is inhabited by little people.

In the two civic elections he has already tried and lost, he figures his enemies have used this irony against him. But this time, he says, it's going to be different.

European Numbers Wizard Making Tour Of United States

CHICAGO (AP)—"What a memory! Bet he never misses on his wedding anniversary."

That's the usual first reaction on seeing Olgo, the mathematical wizard, sort through his bag of tricks. But Olgo is quick to debunk his own talents.

"Send me for a dozen eggs and a loaf of bread sometime," he says. "I may come back with an egg and a dozen loaves of bread."

Numbers are his forte. Jassinger Olgo has been living off them and his phenomenal faculty for remembering them for a quarter-century. A Czechoslovakian who calls London home, Olgo now is on a United States tour, including dining-room engagements at Chicago's Edgewater Beach Hotel and New York's Pierre.

He calls for telephone numbers—no exchange names, please—from his audience. Then he performs various other feats of memory and before bowing off recites a dozen or so of the telephone numbers in the order they were called to him.

How does he do it? "It's a gift I was born with," he says. "Maybe science will be able to figure it out when I am gone. I've sold my head to the University of Vienna."

Olgo, now a slight, bald man of 45, was one of six children of a Novemesto, Slovakia, farmer. When he was five and a half years old, he watched his father groping with a mathematical problem. Olgo, who had had no schooling, asked his father what he was doing with pencil and paper. His father tried to brush him off.

KNEW THE NUMBER

"Why do you work so hard at it, papa?" the boy asked. "The number you are trying to find is 1,092."

The father smiled and calculated some more. The number was 1,092. He took the boy in hand and went into the house. "Mama," he said, "we have a crazy son. I am taking him to Vienna to a doctor."

In Vienna the elder Olgo found he had no demented child, but a prodigy. Except for four hours in his teens, Olgo has been an entertainer ever since.

"They gave me a job in a bank at three times what older men were earning," he recalls. "I went to work at 8. I left at noon for lunch and never went back."

Olgo calls for any date over hundreds of years. In a second after it is called out, he snaps out "Friday" or whatever day of the week it might be.

He does that by a mathematical formula with the aid of his memory. He has memorized the day of the week on which Jan. 1 fell over hundreds of years. Given the year, his mind immediately flashes through the formula and comes up with the day of the week.

Netherlands Ahead Of Other Countries In Postwar Effort

PARIS (CP)—Pierre Dupuy, Canada's self-styled "Stone Age" diplomat, adopted Holland an enthusiastic build-up.

The Netherlands, he says, is striding 50 years ahead of other countries in postwar reconstruction.

The dapper, bouncy Canadian ambassador at The Hague talks of "extraordinary" Dutch progress in rebuilding, the broad boulevards of Amsterdam, the slickness of business and commerce.

"It's really remarkable," he said in an interview. "Things are almost back to prewar. There are as many cars on the streets as in Paris or New York."

Canadian-Dutch relations are another of his enthusiasms. The short, dark-moustached man, who has been Canada's contact with a dozen European countries, says Netherlands have a special admiration for the Dominion. When Canada's flag was hoisted at Juliana's coronation, the crowd cheered (it seemed to Dupuy) for fully 10 minutes.

Last May 5, at ceremonies marking the anniversary of German capitulation to Canadian forces in Holland, 18,000 persons attended. Dupuy still receives letters from many of the 4,000 Dutch girls who married Canadian soldiers.

An exchange of students and teachers is under way to capitalize on the Dutch sentiment. Meanwhile, lectures, exhibitions and films on Canada are provided by a Canadian-Netherlands society with 10,000 memberships.

How To Fight Russia Without Shooting

(Probably no living American has seen more war, at first-hand, than Maj.-Gen. William J. Donovan. "Wild Bill" was World War I commander of New York's famous Fighting Irishmen—the 165th Infantry, 42nd Division—and World War II head of the Office of Strategic Services. Between the two major wars he was an unofficial observer, on the scene, of most of the significant minor conflicts that he recognized as laboratories for the coming world struggle. Out of this background, and his deep study of subversion and counter-subversion, propaganda and counter-propaganda, Gen. Donovan has developed an idea how to prevent World War III. He presents it in this dispatch, written especially for NEA Service.)

Highlighted on this map are the four strategic waterways Gen. Donovan thinks the western powers should consider closing to Russia and Soviet satellite nations as one step toward taking the initiative away from the Soviet Union in a program to "compel Russia to Peace."

By WILLIAM J. DONOVAN

It is time for the United States to take the initiative away from the Soviet Union, into our own hands, and to impose our initiative on Russia.

Up to now, Russia has held the strategic offensive. We have confined ourselves to a tactical defensive. Soviet tactics have kept us so busy bickering that we have been unable to set up our own strategic objective, which is peace in the world.

I think it is criminal to imagine that the only alternative to abstinence to Russia is to plunge into a shooting war. We are inclined to think war means atom bombs, guided missiles, ships, shooting. But, after all, the purpose of war is to break an enemy's will to resist. There are other ways than killing to do that.

For several years Russia has been fighting a bloodless but an effective war against us through subversion, psychology, sanctions. I suggest that we start our own counter-program, using economic sanctions and psychological measures to take advantage of the political fissures between Russia and the satellite countries she controls, through minorities, against the will of majorities.

CLOSE LANDS, PORTS

For example:
How about inquiring whether we could deny to Russia and her satellites the use of port facilities controlled by Great Britain, France and the U.S.?

How about considering whether the Suez and Panama canals, the Kiel canal, the Dardanelles, should be closed to the Soviet bloc nations?

How about looking into the entire position of strategic materials upon which Russia depends?

What are we doing about the 100,000 tons of crude rubber going to Russia every year from Singapore by way of Holland?

I do not have enough information to know the effect if we should close canals and ports to the Russians. That would require study, to see how much they use those facilities, and how.

I consider it worth studying because I am convinced that Britain's failure to close the Suez Canal to Italy—which I suggested after several months in Ethiopia during the Italian invasion in 1935-36—was responsible for Italy's victory. That, in turn, encouraged Hitler to carry on a flirtation with Mussolini, to go into the Rhineland with an empty pistol, and ultimately to start World War II.

We ought to check Russian use of the canals. We ought to go behind the flags flying on ships to see whose cargo they actually are carrying.

The Russians concede frankly that one of their major aims is to destroy the effectiveness of the Economic Co-operation Administration program. The ECA is only one weapon against Soviet subversion. It needs to be buttressed with others. But we can't let the Russians destroy that weapon. To do so would play right into the principal aim of the cold war against us.

FEAR OF ABANDONMENT

Throughout Europe is the fear that we will abandon them when it serves our purpose. Soviet propaganda aims at selling that idea, at discrediting our motives, at convincing Europe that ECA will be ineffective.

Russia says to them: "You're playing with America now. But keep in mind that we're going to drive the Americans out of here." That's the whole purpose of the Berlin operation. "And when we do, you'll have to deal with us, and we'll remember what you're doing now."

They have Europe worried. Each nation has its own special problems, but behind the shoulder of every non-Communist government hover uncertainty, fear that we'll pull out and leave them at Russia's mercy.

Those countries need assurance that we will stand by them—not by putting a big army in Europe, but by putting into their hands the tools, arms and equipment for self-rehabilitation and self-defence.

VITAL TO DEFENCE

In the last two wars we went on the assumption that we went to Europe to help Europe. I say those two wars demonstrated that Europe was our outer bastion, and we had to get there in self-defence.

It is time for us to decide whether western and northern Europe are as vital to us today as we considered South America 125 years ago. If it is, then we should apply to it the same principles that underlie the Monroe Doctrine.

There's nothing of the Lady Bountiful about such an idea. It is a very practical measure to defend ourselves, because the closer we permit Russia to get to us, the farther we let her move us from Russia.

We should supply non-Communist Europe with all those physical and psychological things with which a fight is carried on. Words aren't enough.

DE GASPERI ON SPOT

For example, the de Gasperi government in Italy is under attack for its co-operation with us. Through the Marshall Plan, we should give that government material answers to its enemies—food, tools, even guns—so that the government can show its people in concrete form the advantage of having us on their side.

We can give those material things in knowledge that we don't have to go on forever, that we need only prime the pump and then they'll go ahead themselves. We should give them as a practical evidence that we really are backing them. We should commit ourselves so far that they will know it is to our interest to stand by—so far as to ally their fear that we'll quit, and leave them at Russia's mercy.

This isn't a program of war. It's a program of peace. It looks toward giving those who want to resist Russia the psychological, political and economic weapons by which they can help compel Russia to peace. It looks toward making it to Russia's disadvantage to be belligerent, to her advantage to co-operate with the rest of the world toward peace.

Extension Telephones Again Available but in Limited Quantity

The Telephone Company is once again installing extension telephones, but the number of telephones available for this purpose is limited. However, further shipments during the next few months should relieve this situation, and if subscribers who wish to obtain extension telephones will notify the Telephone Company's business office now, their names will be placed on file and the work will be done as telephones become available.

Some people who have been unable to get telephone service of any kind may wonder why the telephones now being offered for extension service could not be used to give them main service. The answer is that the telephones are only used for extension service when shortages of central office equipment, cable, etc., prevent them being used to give main service. The providing of main service continues to be our principal concern. Shortages of cable and central office equipment are still acute, and are the principal reason why the waiting list for main service in our territory still contains over 25,000 names.

Christmas Stocking Prospects In Britain Said Best In Years

LONDON (CP)—Kindly-faced men with rosy cheeks and a way with children will soon be stepping into high boots and red and white cloaks for duty in the toyland of London stores.

But, say the men choosing this year's Santa Clauses, children are more critical nowadays and only men who look the part are chosen. Their beards should be real.

"Playing Santa Claus is rapidly becoming an actor's job," said the manager of a West End store. "False whiskers often disappoint the children, unless they are worn with stage aplomb. And we cannot find enough suitable types with real beards."

NOT AGAIN

A burly Fleet Street reporter, chosen to play Santa Claus last Christmas, caused a sensation in toyland when he told a precocious seven-year-old to "put that—train down."

"I don't expect I shall be asked to play Santa again," he said.

In several stores Santa is making his appearance already. Fortunately toys are more plentiful and Christmas stocking prospects are the best for years.

A tour of stores and warehouses revealed shiny metal clockwork and electric trains, dapple rocking horses, dolls that snap open their eyes when touched, and streamlined cars with pump-up tires such as today's young Britons have never seen.

Many toys have been freed for the home market this year by the Board of Trade's removal of quota restrictions. A few fairy-cycles will make a post-war reappearance. But, said a spokesman for the makers, "most are still going for export."

NEW ROCKING HORSES

A number of stores are selling goliwogs and teddy bears at from 15s ($3) to £5 for luxury models. Rocking horses are back but at high prices—from £3.10s to £5.

For the under-fives there are strong wooden trucks and wagons at seven shillings and metal pedal cars at 22s. 6d. One store has small metal clockwork cars with steering wheel and brake for two shillings, doll's prams at 23 shillings and rubber-tired scooters at 11 shillings.

Oxford and Regent Street firms are combining to make an avenue of spangled Christmas trees decorating store facades. Electric fairy lamps are reappearing in all parts of the West End, but their use may be restricted because of wintertime power cuts.

"I believe that, despite the troubled international situation, this Christmas will be more like pre-war than any we have seen since 1939," said the head of a large store in Holborn.

South Africa Aids Stranded Moslems

CAPE TOWN (CP)—Cape Moslem pilgrims who have been stranded in Mecca for four months will be rescued by a British ship commissioned by the South African government.

The 130 pilgrims reached Jeddah, nearest port to Mecca, in the Egyptian ship Misr. They had been promised a return passage in the same vessel.

They waited in vain for months. An appeal to the Union Minister of the Interior was successful.

Burma Hero Demands Intelligence And Wisdom Of Officers

LONDON (AP)—Gen. Sir William Joseph Slim, who succeeds Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery as chief of the British Imperial General Staff, demands penetrating intelligence and broad wisdom from his officers.

Associates of the old 14th Army who helped him smash the Japanese in Burma recall his handling of an air force problem to demonstrate the kind of intelligence he expects.

Eager airmen reported they were in a position to destroy the headquarters of the Japanese Gen. Sato in Burma and they wanted the word to go.

"Never," said Gen. Slim. "It would be a disaster to Britain if Gen. Sato were killed. He is so stupid that I want him directing the other side."

Gen. Slim believes the enemy should be helped and encouraged to defeat himself.

In Gen. Slim, Britain will have a chief of staff who is thoroughly familiar with modern warfare. Victor over three Japanese armies in Burma, he moved whole divisions over the jungle by air to strike swiftly at vulnerable spots.

He believes in the infantry. He believes in the stubbornness of the British and their refusal to get scared.

"The British are no braver than Germans, Frenchmen or Italians," he once said. "But they are brave a bit longer."

UP FROM THE RANKS

Gen. Slim, 57, grey, with a clipped moustache, upsets some tradition in the war office. He came up from the ranks. He has been the victim of discipline a number of times.

He lost his stripes as lance corporal in the First World War when he stepped out of a marching column to take a glass of beer offered him by a Belgian woman.

More recently he ordered 50,000 parachutes from an Indian manufacturer without asking the war office. It turned out all right, and the Indian manufacturer got his money, because the parachutes won a campaign. But the general was reproved in the course of some bristling correspondence.

Forest Engineers Meet At Nanaimo

NANAIMO—Urgent necessity for leaving all logged-off lands in satisfactorily reforested condition, was stressed in a resolution, unanimously adopted by the Vancouver Island section of the Canadian Society of Forest Engineers, at a meeting in Nanaimo.

The resolution read:

"The Canadian Society of Forest Engineers, Vancouver Island Section, reiterates the society's recommendations before the Sloan Commission, and the recommendation of that commission, with respect to the urgent necessity for leaving all logged-off lands in satisfactorily reforested condition.

"As an incentive to owners of forest land, we also recommend the establishment of an equitable taxation basis for such lands as are held by them and maintained in productive condition for a second timber crop."

Three Children Die In Flaming Home

PERTH, N.B. (CP) — Three small girls were burned to death Tuesday in their Victoria county home at Berwick, 12 miles from here. The victims, daughters of Mrs. Rita Gee, were Mavis Roberts, 4; Vaida May, 3, and Charlene Christine, 2.

The fire apparently started from a stove in the two-room building, and spread so quickly the children were overcome before they could reach the door.

Mrs. Gee had left the house for a brief visit to her mother, living nearby.

The children's father, Bernard Gee, was killed in a highway accident last year.

Formosa is 244 miles long and 97 miles wide.

Arion Choir Opens Season With Recital At Victoria West

Showing a new vigor and strength for a new season with a new conductor, the 57-year-old Victoria Arion Male Voice Choir under the direction of Frank Tupperman with Mrs. Helen McVie as accompanist opened its 1948-49 season with a recital at St. Paul's Church, Victoria West.

With 50 members present, the choir presented an entirely new program.

Herbert Kent conducted the traditional "Prayer of Thanksgiving" which opens every Arion recital.

Roger Gray, baritone, and Alan Clegg, tenor, were heard in solo groups accompanied by Mrs. Helen McVie. As guest artist Mrs. Jessie Lake, formerly of Regina, presented two solo groups. Her well-trained soprano voice was heard to very good advantage in the Puccini aria "Vissi d'arte" from "Tosca," the "Italian Street Song" and the popular Mozart "Alleluia." Her accompanist was Mrs. Kathleen Layfield.

NORTH BAY, Ont. (CP) — Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Beaudry, Tuesday night were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their farmhouse in MacPherson township.

Dead are Gaetano, three, who died after being thrown out of a bedroom window, and Aime, four, whose body was not recovered from the ruins. Another son, Jean Claude, aged five, was carried to safety.

Agency Manager

Ray Barford returns to the advertising field in the capacity of manager of the eastern operation of James Lovick & Company Ltd. For the past four years Mr. Barford was general manager of Thomson Dailies, a chain of eight Ontario newspapers. Prior to entering the newspaper business, he was for 20 years with J. J. Gibbons Ltd., latterly as a director.

As a member of the Canadian Daily Newspapers' Association, Mr. Barford headed up the Bureau Management Committee, which was active in promoting the cause of newspapers both in Canada and in Great Britain.

During the past two years he was chairman of the delegation which toured Great Britain on a trade mission.

Mr. Barford now becomes a

Groucho Makes Like Anthony Eden With New Type Moustache

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Another landmark has vanished from the Hollywood scene — Groucho Marx's painted moustache.

The famed swath of grease has disappeared from Groucho's pan. In its place is a home-grown Anthony Eden-like brush with which the comic appears quite happy.

"It might open new possibilities for me," he commented. "Who knows—next season I might play 'Othello.'"

The old grease moustache helped to bring him fame, but it became a monster to Groucho's ambitions to play fairly legitimate roles, he said.

"I couldn't play with real actors when I had it on," he complained. "It gave an unreal quality to any scheme I would be in."

Groucho's enthusiasm for the new brush stems from the fact that he doesn't like making Marx Brothers pictures. Ask him how he feels about them and you get a reaction that makes you believe he was properly tagged:

"They're murder. You go through a lot of strenuous physical labor and spend all your

Hollywood To Film Canadian Mounties

OTTAWA (CP)—Hollywood is going to film Canada's Mounties in a movie to be made in Ottawa soon.

The film, to be produced by Max M. King Film Productions of Hollywood, will be the first of a series telling the story of the R.C.M.P. and of Canada generally.

Max King, producer who hails from Saint John, N.B., said Tuesday he is going to use the "training methods and traditional background responsible for their international renown as the basis of a picture to be called 'Scarlet and Gold.'"

It will be filmed here, starting next spring, with a cast selected in Hollywood. King said his writer would be Art Arthur, a native of Toronto.

time worrying about new routines and writing half the dialogue."

Then ask him about his pictures alone, such as his current "It's Only Money."

"It's burglary. I almost feel ashamed to take the money. You're handed a script and all you have to do is read the lines." You might judge from this that there will be no more Marx Brothers films—which is something the boys say each time they make one. Groucho is definite about this:

"There will be no more Marx Brothers pictures—except for 'The Marx Brothers Story.' All we have to do now is find four Larry Parkses."

CAPITOL THEATRE

Robert Stack, personable young hero of "A Date With Judy," now at the Capitol Theatre, makes his return to the screen after five years in the U.S. Navy. Born in Los Angeles, Stack made his screen debut opposite Deanna Durbin nine years ago in a picture called "First Love." Others of his pictures include "The Mortal Storm," "Badlands of Dakota" and "Eagle Squadron."

Janet Blair Stars In Skelton Comedy

Columbia's "the Fuller Brush Man," new comedy starring Red Skelton and Janet Blair, will open at the Atlas Theatre today.

Featured members of the cast include Don McGuire, Hilary Brooke, Adele Jergens, Ross Ford and Trudy Marshall. The screen play for this Edward Small production was written by Frank Tashlin and Devery Freeman and is based on a "Saturday Evening Post" story by Roy Huggins. S. Sylvan Simon produced and directed.

YORK THEATRE

The Sydney Box unit working on the rocky coast of Cornwall, England's most westerly county, were involved in a real shipwreck whilst shooting smuggling scenes for "The Man Within," now being shown at the York Theatre.

They were using a sailing ship for these scenes and were sailing close inshore when a sudden squall sprang up. Before the ship and its escorting tug were able to get back into harbor, the engines stalled and the vessels were driven on the rocks.

A distress signal was hoisted and a cutter accompanied by another tug were sent out to rescue the crews.

An announcement of importance to the shopping public of British Columbia by Mr. Chris. Spencer, president of David Spencer Limited

It is with considerable satisfaction to both parties concerned that arrangements have been completed for the purchase of David Spencer Limited by The T. Eaton Co. Limited. Commencing immediately, the Spencer stores will be operated as part of the Eaton organization under the name of The T. Eaton Co. British Columbia Limited.

For many years a warm friendship has existed between these old family concerns, a friendship that extended beyond business relationships to a close, and personal regard. When it was decided that David Spencer Limited should be sold, it seemed a matter of course that, having expressed an intention of opening stores in British Columbia, The T. Eaton Co. should purchase the Spencer business and thus ensure the maintenance of the honourable traditions and sound retailing principles for which David Spencer Limited has been noted for over seventy-five years.

My brother Victor and members of the Spencer family are very sensible of the debt we owe to our friends and customers all over the province and take this opportunity of thanking them for their assistance in building up such an institution. I am assured that the T. Eaton Co. will serve you with even greater satisfaction and the same loyal staff will carry on.

President, David Spencer Limited.

A statement by Mr. John David Eaton . . . president of the T. Eaton Co. Limited

As Mr. Christopher Spencer has announced, The T. Eaton Co. Limited has purchased the business of David Spencer Limited and will operate the Spencer Stores under the name of The T. Eaton Co. British Columbia Limited.

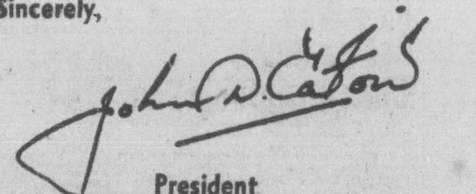

We are, of course, not strangers on the coast. Our Mail Order catalogue and our store and Mail Order Branch in Vancouver have helped make us many friends in the province. We have felt that with the tremendous growth and development of British Columbia and its great future potential, we should have more adequate representation in the way of stores.

We have always had great admiration for David Spencer Limited and our relations have been on a most friendly and co-operative basis. Both companies have served the Canadian public for many years and our traditions of service are mutual. The shopping public of British Columbia can be assured that our best efforts will be concentrated on bringing to them the advantages of our widespread organization and buying power.

We believe that we have much to offer the shoppers of British Columbia. We will now operate 60 department stores across Canada and a large mail order business with hundreds of order offices in smaller communities. We operate many of our own manufacturing facilities and our own domestic and overseas buying offices, and our buyers regularly visit many foreign lands in search of merchandise. Our aim is to sell a large volume of merchandise at lower prices, at the same time offering the widest possible assortments in both domestic and imported goods. Our great pride is the famous Eaton guarantee of "Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded" which was established in 1869 by the founder of the company, Mr. Timothy Eaton.

We are a friendly organization and we think you will like shopping with us. We intend to prove to you with our offerings that "It Pays to Shop at Eaton's" and we want you to know that the basis of our business, as outlined by the founder, is "a square deal to all who buy from us, who sell to us and who work for us."

Sincerely,

President
